Today's advisors need to be -

SELF-DIRECTED

Gain insight into the market and assess investments with the full story in one place. Research companies and stay on top of breaking news on one platform.

CLIENT-FOCUSED

See how the market affects your clients' accounts. Gaining the advantage of context and real-time data in one clear view, you can share investment insights to engage your current clients and attract new ones.

FLEXIBLE

Stay on top of market data, news and client portfolios from home, in the office or on the go. Our web-based mobile app gives you easy access to the market any time, anywhere – syncing up our watchlists and entitlements.

2

Market insights

Track how the market affects your book of business

Monitor the market

When an unexpected event unfolds, you can quickly assess its potential impact on your book of business. Sophisticated market-monitoring tools allow you to compare performance against benchmarks, view sector contributions and visualize changes in a client's portfolio.

Market intelligence

Gain insights into factors driving the market with LSEG T1's global market data, including real-time and historic pricing, indices, options, futures, FX rates, economic indicators, industry and sector information, volume at price, short interest, reference data and more.*

Identify trends with LESG T1's market-leading advanced charting package. Get a clear view of historical movements on a security or index, compare peer performance, visualize the impact of specific events and apply moving averages or other indicators.

Receive real-time alerts to stay on top of critical events such as price or volume changes, liquidity events, filings, research, news or account activity.

* Real-time exchange data is fee-liable.
