

Hedgeweek European Awards 2026: Recognition Across the Investment Workflow

At the Hedgeweek European Awards 2026, held at County Hall in London on 9th June 2026, LSEG received recognition across multiple categories supporting the investment workflow, with LSEG AlphaDesk recognised as Solution Provider of the Year for Order Management Systems (OMS) and LSEG TORA recognized as Solution Provider of the Year for Order and Execution Management Systems (OEMS).

Presented alongside the Hedgeweek European Summit, the awards form part of one of the leading gatherings of the European hedge fund community, bringing together portfolio managers, traders, CIOs, COOs, institutional allocators, technology leaders and service providers from across the alternative investment industry. The 2026 program featured discussions on artificial intelligence, operational scale, institutionalisation and the future of investment workflows. Against this backdrop, the recognition of both LSEG AlphaDesk and LSEG TORA reflects the growing importance of connecting portfolio management, execution and operational oversight with a single investment operating model.

LSEG AlphaDesk: A Front-to-Back Investment Management Platform

Recognised as Solution Provider of the Year for PMS, LSEG AlphaDesk provides a front-to-back investment management platform supporting portfolio management, execution, operations and compliance within a single environment.

LSEG AlphaDesk supports investment managers across the investment lifecycle, providing a common data foundation that enables portfolio managers, traders, operations and compliance teams to work from shared positions, workflows and controls.

LSEG TORA: Extending Execution Capabilities

Recognised as Solution Provider of the Year for OEMS, LSEG TORA extends the execution capabilities available to investment managers with advanced multi-asset execution workflows, API-driven automation, sophisticated execution strategies, spread trading functionality and global broker and venue connectivity.

Together, LSEG AlphaDesk and LSEG TORA help investment managers support the full lifecycle, from portfolio construction and order management to execution and post-trade oversight.
