

SOLUTION OVERVIEW

FTSE Nareit US Real Estate Index Series

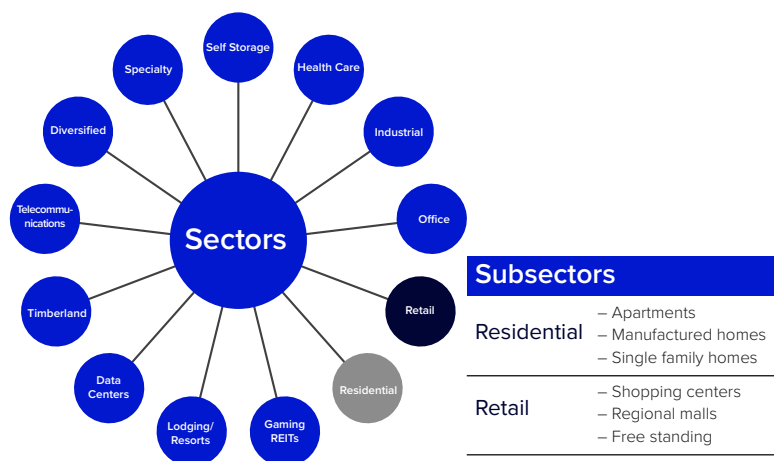

The FTSE Nareit US Real Estate Index Series provides investors with a comprehensive family of indexes designed to measure the entire commercial real estate sector of the US economy.

FTSE Russell works in partnership with Nareit, the US-based association for REITs and publicly traded real estate companies with an interest in US real estate and capital markets, to calculate and oversee the index series.

The FTSE Nareit Composite Index provides investors with the broadest picture of the US real estate market, while the sector and sub-sector indexes provide more narrowly-focused views of commercial real estate. The indexes can be used to benchmark the performance of real estate investment portfolios, and they are also suitable for use as the basis for index-linked investment products such as Exchange Traded Funds (ETFs) and derivatives.

FTSE Nareit Property Sectors

The FTSE Nareit US Real Estate Index Series uses a real estate-specific sector framework.

Comprehensive

Spans the entire commercial real estate sector of the US economy.

Includes exchange-listed REITs from all investment and property sectors.

Modular

Property sector and sub-sector indexes facilitate more narrowly focused exposure to commercial real estate.

Investable

The indexes are free-float market cap-weighted to ensure that only the investable opportunity set is included.

The parent FTSE Nareit Equity REITs Index is screened to ensure that the index is liquid and tradable.

Transparent

Transparent, rules-based construction and maintenance processes are freely available on lseg.com/ftse-russell.

Widely tracked

More than $296B in assets benchmarked to the FTSE Nareit US Real Estate Index Series and the FTSE EPRA Nareit Global Real Estate Index Series¹

¹ Data as of December 31, 2022 as reported on April 1, 2023 by eVestment for active institutional funds, Morningstar for active retail mutual funds, insurance products, and ETFs, and passive assets directly collected by FTSE Russell.
