Overview

1. Overview

The following paper lists the FTSE Russell equity index constituents that have either been subject to sanctions or are currently subject to sanctions that either restrict or prohibit the trading or holding of the named listed securities. FTSE Russell indices reflect sanctions imposed by the U.S. Department of the Treasury, the Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC), United Kingdom (UK) and the European Union (EU) that prohibit natural or legal persons from holding equity in particular countries, industries, named companies or companies linked to sanctioned individuals.

Equity index constituents that are subject to sanctions are treated in accordance with the FTSE Russell Index Policy Guide, "Index policy in the Event Clients are Unable to Trade a Market or a Security", section 2.3, "Sanctions are imposed which restrict investment into foreign jurisdictions.

Additionally, this paper details the treatment of securities that are subject to restrictions imposed by the U.S. Department of Treasury's Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN) on three Mexican financial firms.

Until further notice, dividend distributions by Macquarie Mexico Real Estate Management (Mexico, B80RZK1, Small Cap) effective from the open on 20 October 2025, will not be implemented within FTSE Russell equity indices. This is due to global custodians reporting that in compliance with FinCEN order they will not facilitate settlement for CIBanco, which is one of the three Mexican financial firms sanctioned by FinCEN, as it is the trustee bank for Macquarie Mexico.

All other corporate events for Macquarie Mexico will continue to be implemented as this stock is not subject to any sanctions restricting the holding or trading of equity in these securities.

Additionally, subject to the FinCEN restrictions being rescinded on CIBanco or the securities appointing a trustee bank that is not subject to FinCEN restrictions, Macquarie Mexico will not be eligible for promotion to the GEIS Large or Mid Cap size segment. It will either be retained as Small Cap or be eligible for demotion to Micro Cap or deleted if failing index eligibility in accordance with the index methodology.

At present the following Mexico listed non-constituent securities are reported to retain CiBanco as their trustee bank. These securities will continue to be excluded from FTSE Russell Equity Indices until they have either appointed a trustee bank that is not subject to FinCEN restrictions or the FinCEN order on CIBanco is rescinded.
