New solutions built on high-quality, trusted data

Many organisations need to identify market abuse and financial crime in increasingly sophisticated ways – but today's surveillance solutions can be inefficient, costly and unreliable.

LSEG delivers multi-market, cost-effective trade surveillance solutions built on proprietary technology that processes billions of trade and order messages across our venues every day. Our trusted data foundation powers both our own solutions and those of our partners, enabling firms worldwide to investigate potential market abuse more efficiently and strengthen compliance effectiveness.

LSEG Trade Surveillance gives you ...

-  Plug-and-play access with minimal setup and zero installation
-  Unified surveillance framework across asset classes
-  Surveillance solution methodology aligned with those of global regulators for robust compliance
