Ordinary Resolutions

Resolution 1

Shareholders are being asked to receive the Report and Accounts.

Resolution 2

Shareholders are being asked to approve a final dividend of 16 pence per ordinary share. If you approve the final dividend, it will be paid on 16 August 2010 to all Shareholders on the register at the close of business on the Record Date, which is expected to be 23 July 2010.

Resolution 3

Shareholders are being asked to approve the Report of the Remuneration Committee for the year ended 31 March 2010, as set out on pages 44 to 53 of the Report and Accounts.

London Stock Exchange Group plc. Registered in England and Wales No. 5369106
Resolutions 4 to 7
Pursuant to the Company’s Articles of Association, at least one third of the Directors are required to retire by rotation each year. Resolutions 4 to 7 seek your approval to re-elect Janet Cohen, Sergio Ermotti, Doug Webb and Robert Webb respectively as Directors of the Company.

Following formal performance evaluation the Board considers that each of these Directors continues to be effective and to demonstrate commitment to the role, including commitment of time for board and committee meetings and any other duties. The Board is content that each of the Non-Executive Directors offering themselves for election or re-election is independent in character and there are no relationships or circumstances which are likely to affect their character or judgement. Janet Cohen and Robert Webb have each served nine years on the Company’s board and, being eligible, will seek re-election on an annual basis at future AGMs of the Company in line with the Company’s own policy and the Combined Code on Corporate Governance. Oscar Fanjul and Nigel Stapleton will retire as Directors at the conclusion of the AGM.

Resolutions 8, 9 and 10
Gay Huey Evans, Paul Heiden and Raffaele Jerusalmi were appointed as Directors since the last AGM and Resolutions 8, 9 and 10 propose their reappointment as required by the Company’s Articles of Association.

Biographies of the Directors seeking election or re-election are set out in Appendix 1 to this document. All of the Directors offering themselves for election or re-election have wide business knowledge and bring valuable skills and experience to the Board.

Resolution 11
Resolution 11 seeks your approval to re-appoint PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as auditors of the Company, to hold office until the conclusion of the next AGM of the Company at which accounts are laid before the Company.

Resolution 12
Shareholders are being asked to authorise the Directors to determine PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP’s remuneration as auditors.

Resolution 13
The authority conferred on the Directors at last year’s AGM to allot shares (including treasury shares) or grant rights to subscribe for, or convert any security into, shares in the share capital of the Company expires on the date of the forthcoming AGM. Paragraph (A) of Resolution 13 will, if passed, authorise the Directors to allot the Company’s shares (including treasury shares) or grant rights to subscribe for, or convert any security into, shares in the Company up to a maximum nominal amount of £6,250,000. This amount represents 33.3 per cent. of the Company’s existing issued ordinary share capital (excluding treasury shares) as at 2 June 2010, being the latest practicable date before publication of this document. Paragraph (B) of Resolution 13 authorises the Directors to allot, including the shares referred to in paragraph (A) of Resolution 13, further of the Company’s shares up to an aggregate nominal amount of £12,500,000 (representing 66.6 per cent. of the Company’s existing issued ordinary share capital (excluding treasury shares) as at 2 June 2010, being the latest practicable date before publication of this document) in connection with a pre-emptive offer to existing shareholders by way of a rights issue (with exclusions to deal with fractional entitlements to shares and overseas shareholders to whom the rights issue cannot be made due to legal and practical problems). This is in accordance with the most recent institutional guidelines published by the Association of British Insurers. The Company currently holds no shares in treasury.

This authority will expire on the conclusion of the AGM of the Company next year. The Board has no present intention to exercise this authority. Should the Board exercise the authority conferred under paragraph (B) of Resolution 13 before the next AGM, the Board confirms that all the Directors will stand for re-election at the next AGM of the Company.

Resolution 14 seeks to grant the authority for the Company and its subsidiaries to make political donations to political parties, to other political organisations and to independent election candidates or to incur political expenditure.

It is not the policy of the Company to make political donations of this type and the Directors have no intention of changing that policy. However, as a result of the wide definitions in the Companies Act 2006 of matters constituting political donations, normal expenditure (such as expenditure on organisations concerned with matters of public policy, law reform and representation of the business community) and business activities (such as communicating with the Government and political parties at local, national and European level on matters vital to the Company's business interests) might be construed as political expenditure or as a donation to a political party, other political organisation, or an independent election candidate and fall within the restrictions of the Companies Act 2006.

Resolution 14 does not purport to authorise any particular donation or expenditure but is expressed in general terms as required by the Companies Act 2006 and is intended to avoid inadvertent infringement of the statute by the Company. The Directors do not intend to use this authority to make political donations within the normal meaning of that expression. If passed, Resolution 14 would allow the Company and its subsidiaries to make donations to political parties, other political organisations and independent election candidates and to incur political expenditure (as defined in the Companies Act 2006) of £100,000 per company up to an aggregate limit of £100,000 for the Company and its subsidiaries (or, in each case, the equivalent amount in any other currency), during the period commencing on the date of Resolution 14 and ending on the date of the Company's next AGM. Any political donation made or political expenditure incurred which is in excess of £2,000 will be disclosed in the Company’s Report and Accounts for next year, as required by the Companies Act 2006.

Special Resolutions

Resolution 15 seeks to renew the authority conferred on the Directors at last year’s AGM to allot ordinary shares, or grant rights to subscribe for, or convert securities into, ordinary shares, or sell treasury shares for cash (other than pursuant to an employee share scheme) without application of the pre-emption rights pursuant to section 561 of the Companies Act 2006. Other than in connection with a rights issue or any other pre-emptive offer concerning equity securities, the authority contained in this Resolution will be limited to an aggregate nominal value of £930,000 (which includes the sale on a non pre-emptive basis of any shares held in treasury), which represents 5 per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of the Company as at 2 June 2010 (being the latest practicable date prior to the publication of this Notice). This authority will expire at the conclusion of the AGM of the Company in 2011. The Company currently holds no shares in treasury.

In accordance with the Pre-emption Group’s Statement of Principles, the Directors confirm their intention that no more than 7.5 per cent. of the issued share capital (excluding treasury shares) will be issued for cash on a non pre-emptive basis during any rolling three year period. A sale of treasury shares will be treated as an issue of shares for the purposes of this Resolution. The Directors have no present intention of exercising this authority and they intend to renew this authority annually.

Resolution 16

This Resolution replaces the authority given at the AGM of the Company held on 15 July 2009 for the Company to make market purchases of its own ordinary shares as permitted by the Companies Act 2006. The terms of the authority are set out in the Resolution. Approval of the Resolution would enable the Company to purchase up to a maximum of 27,000,000 ordinary shares of 679⁄86 pence each in the capital of the Company (representing 10 per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of the Company as at 2 June 2010, the latest practicable date before publication of this document). This authority will expire at the conclusion of the AGM of the Company to be held in 2011 or, if earlier, 18 months from the date of this Resolution. The price per ordinary share that the Company may pay is set at a minimum amount of the nominal value of each ordinary share and a maximum amount of the higher of: (i) 5 per cent. over the average of the previous five business days’ middle market prices and (ii) the higher of the price of the last independent trade of an ordinary share and the highest current independent bid for an ordinary share as derived from the London Stock Exchange Trading System (SETS).
The Directors have no present intention of making such purchases but consider it prudent to retain the ability to do so. The Directors will only exercise the authority if such exercise would in their opinion result in an increase in earnings per share and would be likely to promote the success of the Company for the benefit of its shareholders as a whole.

Any ordinary shares purchased pursuant to the authority conferred by this Resolution may be cancelled or held by the Company as treasury shares, within the limits allowed by law. Such treasury shares may subsequently be cancelled, sold for cash or used to satisfy options issued to employees pursuant to the Company’s employees’ share schemes or otherwise disposed of by Directors in accordance with the requirements of the relevant legislation and the authority relating to rights of pre-emption granted by the shareholders in general meeting.

During financial year 2010, the Company made no market purchases of its own ordinary shares.

The total number of ordinary shares which may be issued on the exercise of outstanding options as at 2 June 2010 is 5,742,455 which represents 2.12 per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of the Company as at that date. If the Company were to purchase shares up to the maximum permitted by this Resolution the proportion of ordinary shares subject to outstanding options would represent 2.35 per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital (excluding treasury shares) as at 2 June 2010. There are no warrants outstanding.

Resolution 17

Resolution 17 would have the effect of adopting new Articles of Association of the Company (the “New Articles”) in substitution for the current Articles of Association of the Company (the “Existing Articles”). A copy of the proposed New Articles is available for inspection at the places and times set out below.

The proposed New Articles are in the same form as the Existing Articles save that amendments have been made to take account of the coming into force of the Companies (Shareholders’ Rights) Regulations 2009, the implementation of the last parts of the Companies Act 2006, developments in market practice and existing shareholder authorities granted to the Company. Since the proposed updates require a number of changes to the Existing Articles, it is considered more appropriate to adopt the proposed New Articles than to amend the Existing Articles. Further details of the material changes and the reasons for them are set out in Appendix 2.

Resolution 18

Resolution 18 renews the authority given at the AGM of the Company held on 15 July 2009 for the Company to call general meetings (other than AGMs) on 14 clear days’ notice. This Resolution is required pursuant to the Companies (Shareholder’s Rights) Regulations 2009 which have increased the notice period for general meetings of the Company to 21 days, unless shareholders have approved the calling of meetings (other than an AGM) on 14 days’ notice by an annual special resolution. It is intended that the shorter notice period would not be used as a matter of routine for such meetings, but only where the flexibility is merited by the business of the meeting and is thought to be in the interests of shareholders as a whole. The approval granted by Resolution 18 will be effective until the Company’s next AGM, when it is intended that a similar resolution will be proposed. The Company is also required to meet any applicable requirements for electronic voting under the Directive before it can call a general meeting on 14 days’ notice.

Notes to the Notice of Annual General Meeting

1. The right to attend and vote at the meeting is determined by reference to the Company’s register of shareholders. Only a shareholder entered in the register of shareholders at 6.00 p.m. on 12 July 2010 (or, in the event that the Annual General Meeting is adjourned, on the register of shareholders 48 hours before the time of any adjourned meeting) is entitled to attend and vote at the meeting and a shareholder may vote in respect of the number of ordinary shares registered in that shareholder’s name at that time. Changes to the entries in the register of shareholders after that time shall be disregarded in determining the rights of any person to attend and vote at the meeting.

2. Shareholders are entitled to appoint a proxy to exercise all or any of their rights to attend and to speak and vote on their behalf at the Annual General Meeting. A shareholder may appoint more than one proxy in relation to the Annual General Meeting provided that each proxy is appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share or shares held by that shareholder. A pink Form of Proxy is enclosed with this Notice of Annual General Meeting for use at the Annual General Meeting.

3. To be valid, a Form of Proxy, duly completed, signed or sealed (as appropriate) and dated, together with any power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy thereof, must be returned to the Company’s Registrars, Equiniti, at Aspect House, Spencer Road, Lancing, West Sussex BN99 6ZL so as to arrive not later than 12.00 noon on 12 July 2010 or not less than 48 hours before the time of any adjourned meeting or the taking of a poll at which the person named in the Form of Proxy proposes to vote.

4. The Form of Proxy must be executed by the shareholder or his or her attorney duly authorised in writing and (in the case of an individual) must be signed by the individual or his or her attorney duly authorised in writing or (in the case of a corporation) either executed under its common seal or signed on its behalf by a duly authorised officer or attorney of the corporation.

5. In the case of joint registered holders, the signature of one holder will be accepted and the vote of the senior holder who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, will be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders. For this purpose, seniority will be determined by the order in which the names stand on the register of shareholders of the Company in respect of the relevant joint holding.

6. Alternatively a shareholder may appoint a proxy or proxies electronically either via the website run by Equiniti at www.sharevote.co.uk using the number provided on the pink Form of Proxy or, if such shareholder is a CREST member, by using the procedure described in paragraph 7 below.

7. CREST members who wish to appoint a proxy or proxies through the CREST electronic proxy appointment service may do so for the Annual General Meeting and any adjournment(s) thereof by using the procedures described in the CREST Manual, which can be viewed at www.euroclear.com/CREST. CREST Personal Members or other CREST sponsored members, and those CREST members who have appointed a voting service provider(s), should refer to their CREST sponsor or voting service provider(s), who will be able to take the appropriate action on their behalf.

In order for a proxy appointment or instruction made using the CREST service to be valid, the appropriate CREST message (a “CREST Proxy Instruction”) must be properly authenticated in accordance with Euroclear’s specifications and must contain the information required for such instructions, as described in the CREST Manual. The message, regardless of whether it constitutes the appointment of a proxy or an amendment to the instruction given to a previously appointed proxy must, in order to be valid, be transmitted so as to be received by the issuer’s agent (ID RA19) by not later than 12.00 noon on 12 July 2010. For this purpose, the time of receipt will be taken to be the time (as determined by the timestamp applied to the message by the CREST Applications Host) from which the issuer’s agent is able to retrieve the message by enquiry to CREST in the manner prescribed by CREST. After this time any change of instructions to proxies appointed through CREST should be communicated to the appointee through other means.

CREST members and, where applicable, their CREST sponsors or voting service providers should note that Euroclear does not make available special procedures in CREST for any particular messages. Normal system timings and limitations will therefore apply in relation to the input of CREST Proxy Instructions. It is the responsibility of the CREST member concerned to take (or, if the CREST member is a CREST personal member or sponsored member or has appointed a voting service provider(s), to procure that his CREST sponsor or voting service provider(s) take(s)) such action as shall be necessary to ensure that a message is transmitted by means of the CREST system by any particular time. In this connection, CREST members and, where applicable, their CREST sponsors or voting service providers are referred, in particular, to those sections of the CREST Manual concerning practical limitations of the CREST system and timings.

The Company may treat as invalid a CREST Proxy Instruction in the circumstances set out in Regulation 35(5)(a) of the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 2001.

8. Any corporation which is a shareholder may appoint one or more corporate representatives who may exercise on its behalf all of its powers provided that they do not exercise their powers differently in relation to the same shares.

9. Any person to whom this notice is sent who is a person nominated under section 146 of the Companies Act 2006 to enjoy information rights (a “Nominated Person”) may have a right, under an agreement between him or her and the shareholder by whom he or she was nominated, to be appointed (or to have someone else appointed) as a proxy for the Annual General Meeting. If a Nominated Person has no such proxy appointment right or does not wish to exercise it, he or she may, under any such agreement, have a right to give instructions to the shareholder as to the exercise of voting rights.

10. The statements of the rights of shareholders in relation to the appointment of proxies in paragraphs 2 to 7 above do not apply to Nominated Persons. The rights described in those paragraphs can only be exercised by shareholders of the Company.

11. As at 2 June 2010 (being the last practicable date prior to the publication of this document) the Company's issued share capital consists of 271,108,651 ordinary shares of 6 79⁄86 pence each, carrying one vote each. Therefore, the total voting rights in the Company as at 2 June 2010 are 271,108,651.

12. Under section 527 of the Companies Act 2006, shareholders meeting the threshold requirements set out in that section have the right to require the Company to publish on a website a statement setting out any matter relating to: (i) the audit of the Company's accounts (including the auditor's report and the conduct of the audit) that are to be laid before the Annual General Meeting; or (ii) any circumstance connected with an auditor of the Company ceasing to hold office since the last Annual General Meeting. The Company may not require the shareholders requesting any such website publication to pay its expenses in complying with sections 527 or 528 of the Companies Act 2006. Where the Company is required to place a statement on a website under section 527 of the Companies Act 2006, it must forward the statement to the Company's auditor not later than the time when it makes the statement available on the website. The business which may be dealt with at the Annual General Meeting includes any statement that the Company has been required under section 527 of the Companies Act 2006 Act to publish on a website.

13. Any shareholder attending the meeting has the right to ask questions. Appendix 2

Material Changes to the Existing Articles

1. Share Capital

The Articles of Association of the Company were amended at the last Annual General Meeting of the Company to delete all provisions of the Company's Memorandum of Association that would otherwise be deemed to be incorporated in the Articles of Association of the Company pursuant to the Companies Act 2006. Accordingly, the references to the share capital of the Company have been removed from the New Articles.

Further, on 1 June 2009 the Company redeemed all remaining B shares issued in the share capital of the Company in accordance with their terms. No further B shares have been issued since this date and accordingly all references to B shares (and the rights attaching to the B shares) have been deleted from the New Articles.

2. Articles which duplicate statutory provisions

Provisions in the Existing Articles that replicate provisions contained in the Companies Act 2006 are in the main to be removed in the New Articles in line with the approach advocated by the government that statutory provisions should not be duplicated in a Company's constitution. These include provisions as to the form of resolutions, the alteration of the Company's share capital and the purchase by the Company of any of its own shares. To the extent that such provisions have been included in the New Articles, they have been updated in light of the Companies Act 2006. The main changes made to reflect this approach are detailed below.

3. Redeemable shares

If a company wished to issue redeemable shares, the Companies Act 1985 required the terms and manner of redemption to be set out in its articles of association. The Companies Act 2006 enables directors to determine such matters if they are authorised by the articles of association. The New Articles contain such an authorisation. The Company currently has no plans to issue redeemable shares but if it did so the Board would need shareholders’ authority to issue new shares in the usual way.

4. Authority to purchase own shares, consolidate and sub-divide shares, and reduce share capital

Under the Companies Act 1985, a company required specific enabling provisions in its articles of association to purchase its own shares, to consolidate or sub-divide its shares and to reduce its share capital or other undistributable reserves as well as shareholder authority to undertake the relevant action. The Existing Articles include these enabling provisions. Under the Companies Act 2006 a company only requires shareholder authority to do any of these things and it will no longer be necessary for articles to contain enabling provisions. Amendments have been made to the New Articles to reflect these changes.

5. Suspension of registration of share transfers

The Existing Articles permit the directors to suspend the registration of transfers. Under the Companies Act 2006 share transfers must be registered as soon as practicable. The power in the Existing Articles to suspend the registration of transfers is inconsistent with this requirement. Accordingly, this power has been removed in the New Articles.

6. Notice of general meetings

The Companies (Shareholders' Rights) Regulations 2009 (the “Regulations”) have amended the Companies Act 2006 to require a company to give 21 clear days’ notice of general meetings unless the company offers shareholders an electronic voting facility and a special resolution reducing the period of notice to not less than 14 days has been passed. Annual general meetings must be held on 21 clear days' notice. The New Articles amend the provisions of the Existing Articles to be consistent with the new requirements.

7. Chairman's casting vote

The New Articles do not contain a provision giving the chairman a casting vote in the event of an equality of votes as this is no longer permitted under the Companies Act 2006.
8. Adjournments for lack of quorum
The Regulations have amended the Companies Act 2006 to require that meetings adjourned for lack of quorum must be held at least 10 clear days after the original meeting. The Existing Articles have been changed to reflect this requirement.

9. Voting record date
The Regulations have amended the Companies Act 2006 to require a company to determine the right of shareholders to vote at a general meeting by reference to the register not more than 48 hours before the time for the holding of the meeting, ignoring days which are not working days. The New Articles reflect this requirement.

10. Voting by proxies on a show of hands
The Regulations amended the Companies Act 2006 to clarify the rules that apply when a shareholder’s proxy casts votes for different shares in different ways. On a vote on a show of hands, every proxy present who has been duly appointed by one or more shareholders entitled to vote on the resolution has one vote, but the proxy has one vote for and one vote against the resolution if:

- the proxy has been duly appointed by more than one shareholder entitled to vote on the resolution, and
- the proxy has been instructed by one or more shareholders to vote for the resolution and by other shareholders to vote against it.

The Existing Articles have been amended to reflect these changes.

11. Voting by corporate representatives
The Regulations have amended the Companies Act 2006 in order to enable multiple representatives appointed by the same corporate shareholder to vote in different ways on a show of hands and a poll. The New Articles contain provisions which reflect these amendments.

12. Electronic conduct of meetings
The Regulations have amended the Companies Act 2006 to provide for the holding and conducting of electronic meetings. The Existing Articles have been amended to reflect the relevant provisions more closely.

13. Vacation of office by Directors
The Existing Articles specify the circumstances in which a Director must vacate office. The New Articles update these provisions to reflect the approach taken in the model articles for public companies produced by the Department for Business, Innovation and Skills. As a consequence of these changes, if a Director (or any alternate he or she has appointed) has been absent from meetings of the Board for more than six consecutive months without permission of the Board and the Board so resolves, the Director must vacate office.

14. Use of seals
Under the Companies Act 1985, a company could have an official seal for use abroad only if its articles of association gave authority. Under the Companies Act 2006, such authority is no longer required and has been removed from the New Articles.

The New Articles provide an alternative option for execution of documents (other than share certificates). Under the New Articles, when the seal is affixed to a document it may be signed by one authorised person in the presence of a witness, whereas previously the requirement was for signature by either a Director and the Company Secretary or two Directors or such other person or persons as the Directors may approve.

15. Directors’ Interests
The Existing Articles authorise, in certain circumstances, conflicts of interests or duty for a Director of the Company where such conflicts have arisen from his or her involvement with a subsidiary of the Company. The New Articles have been amended to authorise, in certain circumstances, conflicts of interest for a Director where the Company has directed the conduct of the Director in such a way as to create a conflict of interests or duty, whether the other company is a subsidiary of the Company or not.
16. General

The Company has taken the opportunity to clarify some other wording of the Existing Articles. In some areas it was considered appropriate to update the New Articles in line with the Regulations, the Companies Act 2006 and market practice and to conform the language of the New Articles with that used in the model articles for public companies produced by the Department for Business, Innovation and Skills.
