TRADEcho – Pre-Trade Re-architecture – Customer Dress Rehearsal (CDR) & Production Go-live - Postponed

Further to our communication on 002/08102025, TRADEcho is committed to a safe and successful migration to the new pre-trade quoting platform for the benefit of our customers. Although we have made good progress with our customers, we have taken the decision to move the go-live implementation date to Monday 26 January 2026 (initially 24 November 2025) to ensure full customer readiness and a seamless migration.

The CDR will be re-scheduled for Saturday 10 January 2026 (initially 8 November 2025). Please note that the CDR Contingency date will be used exclusively in the event of unsuccessful testing on Saturday 10 January 2026.

The TRADEcho team would like to take the opportunity to thank our customers for their engagement and look forward to continuing to support customers on their migration to the new TRADEcho Pre-Trade Quoting platform.
