

---

CC&G Market Notice

November 12nd, 2018

New appointments in CC&G

---

For the attention of: All
Priority: Medium
Topic: New appointments in CC&G

Dear Client,

We are pleasure to announce that Marco Polito, currently Chief Risk Officer of CC&G, is the new CC&G General Manager. The new role will be effective from December,1st 2018.

The appointment takes place following the decision of Paolo Cittadini to retire after his long and successful career in the London Stock Exchange Group.

Marco Polito joined CC&G in 1992, the year of its establishment. Between 2000 and 2013 he was Head of the Risk Management Department and between 2009 and 2011 he chaired the Risk Committee of EACH the association of European CCPs. In this role Polito contributed to the drafting of the CPSS-IOSCO Principles for Market Infrastructures and of the European Market Infrastructure Regulation (EMIR).

London
Stock Exchange Group

---

Market Notice

November 12nd, 2018

He also held the position as Chief Risk Officer in Monte Titoli and he chaired the ECSDA Risk Committee, the association of European CSDs.

Based on the new appointment, Marco Spallarossa will take on the role of Chief Risk Officer, including responsibility for the Risk Policy team and Silvia Sabatini will assume responsibility for the Risk Management team.

For further information, please contact:

Post Trade Sales

E-mail: Salesteam@lseg.com

Phone: +39 02 72426504