A message from our CEO

This is a proud moment in the 300-year history of London Stock Exchange Group (LSEG) as we complete our combination with Refinitiv.

As separate companies, we have long provided important services and products to the market: the data, analytics and tools relied on every day to make important decisions; the execution venues used to access liquidity, raise capital and discover pricing; the stewardship of clearing houses used to help manage risk and capital.

Together, we will build on those solid foundations. We understand that our broad-ranging role comes with profound responsibility. With our combined strengths and commitment to our customers we will continue to innovate, adapt and deliver value for you.

At this unusually challenging and uncertain time for business and society more broadly, it is more important than ever that we operate with an open approach and deepen our commitment to work with customers as partners – finding solutions that make sense for you.

Thank you for your trust and partnership. We look forward to working with you.

Best regards,
