Article A.1.1.2 Subject of the Regulations

1. These Regulations are adopted in accordance with the EMIR Regulation MiFIR Regulation and the CLF.
2. These Regulations regulate the organisation and functioning:
 - a) of the System; and
 - b) in the context of the System, of the interoperability agreements, entered into pursuant to Article 51 and seq., of the EMIR Regulation.
3. These Regulations, together with the General Conditions for the supply of services, govern the relationships between CC&G and Members. The Regulations govern also the relationships among Members themselves and between Members and Settlement Agents. The Instructions and the Services Manual, in their operational aspects, are an integral part of this set of regulations.

Article A.1.1.3 Organisational principles

1. CC&G exercises the activities contained in these Regulations in a transparent and non-discriminatory manner and on the basis of general criteria and procedures designed to mitigate counterparty risk and to enable access to the system by the market infrastructures and entities so requesting, regardless of the trading venue on which they operate, provided they comply with the applicable requirements set out in these Regulations and in national and EU legislation.
2. CC&G employs and maintains sound corporate governance structures and practices, in line with the organisational requirements provided under the EMIR Regulation and the MiFIR Regulation.
3. CC&G employs and maintains information systems procedures that permit the physical and logical safeguarding of data relating to the System, including the continuity and accuracy of processing.
4. CC&G employs and maintains recovery, re-activation, and restoration procedures for data processing that ensure the continuity of the service.

Article A.1.1.4 Method of communication and information exchange

1. The Regulations, the General Conditions for the supply of services, the Instructions and the Services Manual, together with the Request of Services are made available on the CC&G Internet site (www.lseg.com/ccg).
2. CC&G publishes Notices to Members relating to amendments to the Regulations and to the Instructions, or in contingent situations shall provide them on its Internet site (www.lseg.com/ccg).

Article A.1.1.5 Guarantees deposited at CC&G

1. CC&G manages the guarantee systems indicated in Sections B.
2. Clearing Members of the System shall pay the Margins and where necessary, shall make payments to the Default Funds.
3. The financial guarantees indicated at paragraph 2 are equated for all effects to the replacement guarantees contained in these Regulations and the accrued interest on cash assets deposited by each Member.
4. All sums and the Financial Instruments deposited by Members or however available to CC&G, as a guarantee of Members' obligations to CC&G, including where they temporarily exceed the required Margins and payments to Default Funds are title transferred to CC&G pursuant and for the effect of the Legislative Decree 21 May 2004 no. 170.
5. The Clearing Members to the System shall make the payments referred to in the preceding paragraphs pursuant to Articles 41 and 42 of the EMIR Regulation and of the Article 79-septies of the CLF except for the payments made in the Agricultural Commodity Derivatives Section, from the time of the matching of the counterparties to the end of trading phase of the contract, where the guarantees are established only pursuant and for the effect of the Legislative Decree 21 May 2004 no. 170, where expressly mentioned, and for which the CC&G ensures and maintains internal evidence to enable the identification of the date of the setting up and the financial assets designated as guarantee.

Article A.1.1.6 Relations between CC&G and the Management Companies

1. CC&G shall enter into one or more Agreements with each Management Company in which the guarantee system pre-selected by the Market is determined and the relationships and activities necessary for the correct management of the system are regulated.
2. The Agreements entered into between CC&G and each Management Company shall establish, inter alia, the types of contracts relating to Guaranteed Financial Instruments, the procedures to be followed in case of events regulated by either party, and procedures for information and data exchange in observance of current data processing regulations, including data relating to individual Members expedient for the efficient functioning of the Markets and of the System. Concerning the X-COM Section, within the types of contracts, the Agreements shall also specify the potential reuse of such Non-Derivative Financial Instruments in the context of the Collateral Management Service.
3. With reference to the System, the Agreements shall determine the control procedures for the completeness and accuracy of data and the procedures by which CC&G assumes on its own, through Transfer Orders and according to the rules of the System, the Contractual Positions arising from operations concluded on the Markets.
4. Markets with which CC&G has entered into Agreements are listed in the Instructions, with an indication of the relevant Sections. Markets for which an interoperability agreement is in place with a Special Clearing Member, are listed as well.

SECTION B - CENTRAL COUNTERPARTY SYSTEM

PART B.1 - General provisions

Article B.1.1.1 Clearing and guarantee process for the sections other than the Agricultural Commodity Derivatives Section

1. The Transfer Order relating to guaranteed Financial Instruments shall be understood as effected and entered into the System, and CC&G shall assume the role of Central Counterparty
 - a) from the time of conclusion of a contract on the Market by a Clearing Member, where CC&G is the only central counterparty for such Market. A Transfer Order shall be understood as effected and entered into the System, and the General Clearing Member shall assume the role of counterparty of Trading Client and CC&G shall assume the role of counterparty of the General Clearing Member from the time of conclusion of a contract on the Market by a Trading Client;
 - b) from the time CC&G receives the contract concluded on the Market by Clearing Member where the central counterparty service for that Market is operated jointly by CC&G and Special Clearing Member. A Transfer Order shall be understood as effected and entered into the System, and the General Clearing Member shall assume the role of counterparty of Trading Client and CC&G shall assume the role of counterparty of the General Clearing Member from the time CC&G receives the contract concluded by the Trading Client on the Market. It is assumed that from the time the contract is concluded on the Market, CC&G guarantees the receipt except where reasons for failed or incorrect receipt in the System are out of CC&G control. CC&G informs the System in cases of incorrect or failed receipt of contracts by means of a Notice.
2. According to letter b) in the previous paragraph, from the time a contract is received on the Market between a Member of the System and a trader that participates in a Central Counterparty Guarantee system managed by a Special Clearing Member by virtue of the necessary agreements between all the interested parties, the Transfer Order shall be understood as effected and entered into the System, and CC&G shall assume the role of Central Counterparty against the Special Clearing Member and the Clearing Member.

3. The System processes are as follows:
 - a) acquisition, pursuant to paragraph 1, of the Transfer Order through the Management Company and registration of the identification data of the concluded contract on the Market by the Member of the System;
 - b) clearing and determination of the relevant net balances of the Contractual Positions;
 - c) calculation of the Margins and payments due to Default Funds;
 - d) settlement of the Margins, including intraday Margins, payments due to Default Funds, and amounts charged;
 - e) final settlement of Contractual Positions;
 - f) management of the Failed Contractual Positions;
 - g) management of any default procedure.
4. Article 2 of Legislative Directive no. 210 of 12th April 2001 shall apply to the Transfer Orders, the clearing, and the execution of the contracts indicated in the preceding paragraphs.
5. Upon the acquisition by CC&G of the Transfer Order, the said Transfer Order shall be considered irrevocable pursuant to the said Legislative Decree n. 210 of 2001.

Article B.1.1.2 Clearing and guarantee process for the Agricultural Commodity Derivatives Section

1. A Transfer Order relating to guaranteed Financial Instruments shall be understood as effected and entered into the System, and CC&G shall assume the role of Central Counterparty pursuant to and for the purposes of Article 79-septies CLB, from the time of conclusion of a contract on the Market by a Clearing Member. Such Transfer Order shall be understood as effected and entered into the System, and the General Clearing Member shall assume the role of counterparty of the Trading Client and CC&G shall assume the role of counterparty of the General Clearing Member from the time of conclusion of a contract on the Market by a Trading Client.
2. At the end of the trading phase of the contract, CC&G shall match the Clearing Members and, on behalf of these, of any Clients and/or any Indirect Clients with open positions. As an effect of the matching, the CC&G's Contractual Positions in Delivery (and in withdrawal) are understood to have been transferred to the matched counterparties. From then on, the Members shall replace CC&G in the relationships deriving from the contract and be responsible for fulfilling the obligations concerning the underlying of the contract. From then on, CC&G shall remain obligated, in the event of a default by one of the parties, in accordance with Part B.6 of the Regulations, to the payment of the cash pursuant and for the effects of the Legislative Decree 21 May 2004 no. 170.

3. Paragraphs 3, 4 and 5 of Article B.1.1.1 shall apply.

PART B.2 - Membership

Chapter B.2.1 Membership

Article B.2.1.1. Entities admitted to the System

1. The categories of admission to the System are: General Clearing Member, Individual Clearing Member, and Trading Client. The same qualifications, or different qualifications can be applied to the Share, Bond, ICSD Bond, Equity Derivatives, Energy Derivatives, Agricultural Commodity Derivatives Sections and X-COM.
2. Banks and Investment Firms authorised respectively to carry out banking business or provide one or more Investment Services in Italy pursuant to the Consolidated Law on Banking or to the Consolidated Law on Finance or that can carry out such business, and that provide such services in Italy under a mutual recognition regime, with or without an establishment pursuant to the aforementioned legislation, may be granted the status of General or Individual Clearing Members. Limited to the X-COM Section, legal persons admitted to the Market, other than credit institution and Investment firm, can also acquire the status of Individual Clearing Member.
3. Furthermore non-EU banks and Investment Firms which are not authorised in Italy to carry out banking business or provide Investment Services in Italy pursuant to the Consolidated Law on Banking or to the Consolidated Law on Finance may also acquire the status of General or Individual Clearing Members provided that - in the context of a procedure to recognise the activities of the central counterparty in their State of origin, with the involvement of the Bank of Italy and Consob - the simultaneous presence of the following conditions has been established:
 - a) provisions in the State of origin which are equivalent to those applicable in Italy with respect to the supervision of banks and brokerage companies;
 - b) the State of origin applies provisions which are equivalent to those contained in the EMIR Regulation with respect to clearing;
 - c) the State of origin has in place equivalence arrangements with respect to access to the central counterparty;

- d) appropriate agreements are in place between the Bank of Italy, Consob and the competent authorities of the State of origin.
4. Legal persons indicated at paragraph 2, and other legal persons admitted to trading on the reference Markets that have entered into the agreement indicated at Article B.2.3.1 with a General Clearing Member may be granted the status of Trading Client.
 5. Central Banks of the European Union may participate in the System as a Clearing Member; Poste Italiane S.p.A. and Cassa depositi e prestiti S.p.A. as Members.
 6. The ministry of Economy and Finance, pursuant to article 66 of the CLF, may participate in the System as a Member of the Bond Section.
 7. Other central counterparties authorized and recognized pursuant to EMIR Regulation may participate in the System as Special Clearing Members. Without prejudice to the provisions of the EMIR Regulation (in terms of interoperability agreements), all the provisions of these Regulations for Clearing Members shall, where compatible, also apply to Special Clearing Members, together with the amendments and exceptions explicitly provided for Special Clearing Members in the Regulations, the Instructions, and in the agreements of interoperability entered into between CC&G and the said Special Clearing Members.
 8. Management companies of commodity markets indicated in the Instructions may participate in the System as Qualified Members. All the provisions of Regulations herein for Individual Clearing Members shall, where applicable, also be valid for the Qualified Member, together with the amendments and exceptions explicitly provided for Qualified Members in the Regulations, the Instructions, and in the agreements stipulated between CC&G and the said Qualified Members. Qualified Members are not allowed to trade on the Market.

Article B.2.1.2 Requirements for membership of the System

1. Legal persons that intend to join one or more of the Share, ICSD Bond, Equity Derivatives, Energy Derivatives, Agricultural Commodity Derivatives, or X-COM Sections, must meet the following capital requirements:
 - a) For General Clearing Members, a Supervisory Capital equal to at least:

- € 25,000,000, increased by a variable amount in ratio to the total Trading Client with which they have entered into the agreements indicated at Article B.2.3.1, as defined hereunder:
 - € 5,000,000 from the second to the fifth Trading Client inclusive or;
 - € 10,000,000 up to the tenth Trading Client inclusive or;
 - € 15,000,000 after the tenth Trading Client.
- b) For Individual Clearing Members which are banks or Investment Firms, a Supervisory Capital equal to at least:
- € 3,000,000, in the case of membership to the Share Section;
 - € 10,000,000, in the case of membership to further Sections, or to only one of the following Sections: ICSD Bond Section, Equity Derivatives Section, Energy Derivatives Section, Agricultural Commodity Derivatives Section, X-COM.
- c) For Individual Clearing Members other than credit institutions or Investment Firms that intend to join the X-COM Section, net capital equal to at least € 10,000,000.
2. Legal persons that intend to join the Bond Section must meet the following capital requirements:
- a) For General Clearing Members, Supervisory Capital at least equal to a € 400,000,000;
 - b) For Individual Clearing Members, Supervisory Capital equal to at least € 100,000,000.
3. The capital requirements set out in paragraph 2 above shall not apply to General Clearing Members and to Individual Clearing Members that, in the context of the Bond Section, exclusively carry out trading on: (i) the DomesticMOT section – MOT Market; (ii) the multilateral trading facility ExtraMOT; (iii) the multilateral trading facility EuroTLX; and (iv) the multilateral trading facility Hi-MTF, on which are admitted to trading Financial Instruments liquidated through the liquidation service managed by Monte TitoliS.p.A.. To these legal entities apply the capital requirements specified under paragraph 1 above, respectively at letter a) and b) second line.

4. In the event of the adoption of different membership status among the various Sections, the higher of the asset requirements indicated in the paragraphs above shall be required.
5. Legal Persons that intend to join as General Clearing Members and Individual Clearing Members that do not meet the capital requirements indicated in the preceding paragraphs 1, 2 and 3, but which respectively own:
 - a. For General Clearing Members:
 - i. a Supervisory Capital equal to at least € 15,000,000 in the case referred to in paragraphs 1 and 3,
 - ii. a Supervisory Capital equal to at least € 200,000,000 in the case referred to in paragraph 2;
 - b. For Individual Clearing Members:
 - i. a Supervisory Capital equal to at least € 3,000,000 in the case referred to in paragraphs 1 and 3,
 - ii. a Supervisory Capital equal to at least € 50,000,000 in the case referred to in paragraph 2;
 - iii. a net capital equal to at least € 5,000,000 for legal persons other than banks or Investment Firms, for the X-COM Section;
must constitute a guarantee of an amount in euros at least equal to the difference between Supervisory Capital, or net capital for legal persons other than credit institution and Investment firm, held and the amount indicated in the preceding paragraphs.
6. The guarantee indicated at paragraph 5 must be provided to CC&G according to the methods indicated in the Instructions from a single Guarantor not belonging to the same group as the guaranteed Clearing Member, of CC&G's approval, taking account of the existence of any long-term ratings assigned to the Guarantor, of the total amount of the guarantees released by the Guarantor in favour of CC&G, and of the Guarantor's total assets.
7. The guarantee shall have effect with CC&G only if received directly from the Guarantor, and has effect for relations with the Member concerned from the date notified by CC&G.
8. Clearing Members must:

- a) be the holders of a PM account in Target2 System for the execution, through the procedures provided for Ancillary Systems, except for special cases indicated in the Instructions, of obligations, denominated in euros, arising from membership of the System,
 - b) join a Central Depository Service indicated in the Instructions for the purpose of handling the Margins in Financial Instruments,
 - c) join the Settlement Services for the final settlement of contracts guaranteed by the System, exclusively in the cases of admission to the Cash Sections and/or the Equity Derivatives Section,
 - d) join the Collateral Management Service, exclusively in case of admission to the X-COM Service.
9. For the requirements referred to in paragraph 8, letters a) and b), Clearing Members may use the services of a Settlement Agent, permanently and by way of replacement. For those requirements, different Settlement Agents may be appointed for different Sections, in accordance with the requirements set out in the Instructions.
10. For the requirements referred to in paragraph 8, letter c), Clearing Members may use the services of a Settlement Agent, permanently and by way of replacement. The Settlement Agent must be unique for all the Sections except for the ICSD Bond Section for which it is possible to appoint a different Settlement Agent from the other Sections and it is possible to appoint different Settlement Agents for different Trading Clients.
11. Clearing Members must possess an organisational structure and technological and information technology systems that guarantee the ordered, continuous, and efficient management of relations and activities arising from membership of the System.
12. Where the entity that intends to join the System is subject to the national legislation of a state which is not part of the European Union, it must provide a legal opinion given by a lawyer qualified to practice in the country in which the entity is domiciled. The said legal opinion must attest that no impediments exist to the substantive observance of the provisions of these Regulations, the relevant Instructions, and the laws or other regulations concerning obligations arising from membership of the System, with particular reference to the provisions on Settlement Finality established by Legislative Decree No. 210 of 12 April 2001, the regulations on default set out at Heading B.6.1 and those relating to failure to maintain requirements, suspension and exclusion set out at Heading B.2.2.

13. Where the entity that intends to join the System is a non-EU bank or Investment Firm pursuant to article B.2.1.1. paragraph 3, the opinion pursuant to paragraph 12 must also certify that the entity applying is authorised and actually carries out banking activities or provides services equivalent to Investment Services and activities in the State of origin, alternatively, the license must be provided
14. Clearing Members of the System must maintain adequate recovery, reactivation and restoration procedures for data processing.
15. Members of the System must notify the names of referents for each Section they intend to join, who shall be competent for the activities provided by these Regulations according to the requirements of the Instructions.
16. For parties indicated at Article B.2.1.1, paragraphs 5, 6, 7 and 8, the assessment of membership requirements shall be carried out, including in derogation from the provisions of the preceding paragraphs, by taking account:
 - a) in the case of Special Clearing Members, of the provisions in force in the country of origin and the functioning of those systems;
 - b) in relation to Qualified Members, of the regulatory discipline in force, of their assets, of the possession of adequate capital, financial, organisational and technological resources, of operational rules of the managed markets, in particular those rules regulating the acquisition and protection of guarantees, and the cover provided by the aforementioned guarantees for the obligations taken by the participants to the market. Qualified Members are not required to comply with the capital requirement set out in paragraphs 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5.
17. In order to be admitted to the System, in cases provided by the Instructions, Members must be members of the Pre-settlement Service.

Article B.2.1.3 Applications for membership in the System

1. Legal persons applying for membership to the System, or to one or more Sections, or existing System members that intend to join a further Section, must forward the Request of Services and the relevant documentation to CC&G.

2. From the date on which CC&G notifies the applicant of the receipt of the Request of Services with an invitation to complete the membership documentation indicated in the Instructions, the applicant is obliged to respect the General Conditions for the supply of services indicated at Article A.1.1.2, together with these Regulations and the relevant Instructions insofar as they are applicable pending acceptance.
3. During the period between the forwarding of the Request of Services indicated at paragraph 1 and the notice of the result of the application:
 - a) applicants must notify CC&G of any new fact of relevance to the discharge of the obligations arising from participation in the System;
 - b) CC&G may request further data and information necessary for assessment of the application.
4. CC&G shall notify the outcome of the application within one month of the receipt of the completed documentation, stating the grounds for any rejected application. Where additional examination becomes necessary, CC&G may prolong the term not more than once, and for a maximum term of one month, notifying the applicant of the grounds for such a delay. In the case of an application for membership as a Trading Client, notice of the outcome shall also be sent to the General Clearing Member whose services it intends to use.
5. CC&G shall inform the relevant Management Company of the result of the application.
6. Membership to the Section shall have effect from the date indicated by CC&G.
7. Membership to the System implies the complete assumption by the Member of the obligations provided by the provisions indicated at Article A.1.1.2, paragraph 3.

Article B.2.1.4 Start of operations

1. The start of operations for Clearing Members admitted to the System, for one or more Sections, is dependent on payment to the Default Funds, where due, and payment of membership fees or other fees as indicated in the Instructions.

Article B.2.1.5 Maintenance of membership requirements and obligations of Members

1. Each Clearing Member of the System shall guarantee the availability of an organisational structure and technological and information technology systems that guarantee the ordered, continuous, and efficient management of relations and activities arising from membership in the System.
2. Each Member of the System must promptly notify, with the effects provided for by the Instructions, of any changes in the appointment of referents indicated at Article B.2.1.2, paragraph 15. For each Section, at least one of the said references must always be available during the course of each Market business day.
3. Each Member of the System must promptly notify CC&G of the failure to maintain the requirements indicated at Article B.2.1.1, paragraphs 2, 3 and 4.
4. Each Clearing Member must promptly notify CC&G of:
 - a) the failure to maintain asset requirements indicated at Article B.2.1.2, paragraphs 1, 2, 3 and 4;
 - b) a reduction of more than 30% in the Supervisory Capital, or of the net capital for legal persons other than banks and Investment Firms, from the last notified value, without prejudice to the provisions of letter a) in cases of loss of the minimum asset requirements requested therein;
 - c) any data, information or document that has been requested for the purposes of System management activities or to verify the permanence of the requirements for membership to the System and to the Section.
5. Each Clearing Member must notify CC&G, with prior notice of at least five CC&G trading days, of the failure to maintain any one of the requirements indicated at Article B.2.1.2, paragraph 8, or the loss of effect, for any reason, of the agreement with the Settlement Agent.
6. The General Clearing Member and the Trading Client must promptly notify CC&G of the loss of effect of the agreement indicated at Article B.2.3.1. The said notice, regardless of which party has issued it, shall be understood as accomplished, including on behalf of the other party.

Chapter B.2.2 Failure to maintain requirements, suspension, exclusion and withdrawal Article B.2.2.1 Failure to maintain requirements.

1. In cases where the Supervisory Capital, or the net capital for Individual Participants other than banks and Investment Firms, is reduced below the levels indicated in Article B.2.1.2, paragraphs 1, 2, 3 and 4, CC&G may fix a term, not greater than 180 calendar days, as from the calendar day following the deadline for supervisory capital reporting to CC&G as specified in the Annexes to the Instructions, for its restoration, notifying Bank of Italy, Consob, the Management Company, and any Trading Client.
2. In the event of failure, for any reason, of the guarantee indicated in Article B.2.1.2, paragraph 5 CC&G may fix a term, not greater than 30 calendar days, for its restoration, notifying Bank of Italy, Consob, the Management Company, and any Trading Clients.
3. In the cases indicated in the previous paragraphs as well as in case of late submission to CC&G of Supervisory Capital reporting after the deadlines envisaged in the Annexes to the Instructions, CC&G may concomitantly establish risk containment measures, including requesting increased Margins or the suspension from the System pursuant to Article B.2.2.2. Where CC&G considers that it cannot grant the terms indicated in the previous paragraphs, the exclusion pursuant to B.2.2.4 shall be applied.
4. The requirement to send the declaration on Supervisory Capital to CC&G pursuant to the Annexes to the Instructions is suspended for Members in respect of which have been adopted, pursuant to the Legislative Decree no. 180 of 2015, the Consolidated Law on Banking and the Consolidated Law on Finance, a crisis prevention or management measure or a measure for compulsory administrative liquidation with the continuation of the business activity set out at the assignment act of the liquidators, or equivalent measures provided by other jurisdictions, for as long as the relating procedures are ongoing. For the purposes of risk reduction, CC&G may apply an increase in margins during the period when such procedures are in progress.

5. CC&G shall publicly disclose any breaches by the Members of the requirements indicated under Articles B.2.1.1 and B.2.1.2 and of transparency requirements concerning prices and commissions as specified in Article B.8.1.3, pursuant to paragraph 1 of Article 38 of EMIR Regulation, except in cases where the competent authority, following consultation with ESMA, considers that such public disclosure represents a serious danger to the financial stability or the reliance on the market or can cause serious risk to the financial markets or bring about disproportionate damage to the parties involved.
6. The adoption, pursuant to the Legislative Decree no. 180 of 2015, the Consolidated Law on Banking and the Consolidated Law on Finance of a crisis prevention or management measure, or of a measure for compulsory administrative liquidation with the continuation of the business activity set out at the assignment act of the liquidators, or equivalent measures provided by other jurisdictions, does not constitute a cause for suspension pursuant to Article B.2.2.2 nor exclusion pursuant to Article B.2.2.4., provided the Member fulfils its obligations arising from its participation in the System.

Article B.2.2.2 Suspension

1. CC&G shall suspend from the System or from a Section, notifying Bank of Italy, Consob and the Management Company concerned:
 - a) a Member in cases where CC&G has received notice of grave breach of contract by the said Member in another guarantee and/or settlement system;
 - b) a Clearing Member, in the event of forfeiture of any one of the requirements indicated at Article B.2.1.2, paragraph 8, or the cessation of effect of the agreement with the Settlement Agent, for any reason, unless and exceptionally, the obligations to CC&G are – pending regularization – nevertheless respected. To this end CC&G verifies the possibility of transferring to a different Settlement Agent the positions of the Clearing Member to be settled and the related stocks they had deposited with the insolvent Settlement Agent.
2. CC&G shall suspend a Trading Client, from the Section, notifying Bank of Italy, Consob and the Management Company.

- a) in the event of a request for its suspension from the General Clearing Member, according to the provisions of Article B.2.3.3, paragraph 1.
 - b) if, for any reason, the agreement with the General Clearing Member indicated at Article B.2.3.1 has failed or become ineffective in any way, without a General Clearing Member having entered into a new agreement with the Trading Client in time for CC&G to verify its suitability for the purposes of the System.
 - c) when its General Clearing Member has been suspended.
3. CC&G may suspend a Member of the System from the System itself or from a Section, notifying Bank of Italy, Consob and the Management Company:
- a) in the event of the suspension of the Member from trading on a Market,
 - b) in the event of injunctive proceedings being issued pursuant to articles 51 and 52 of the CLF or equivalents issued by the competent supervisory Authority;
 - c) if the Member fails to provide the information or documents required pursuant to Article B.2.1.5, paragraph 4, sub-paragraph c);
 - d) in the event of serious violation of the provisions of CC&G;
 - e) in the event indicated at Article B.2.2.1, paragraph 3.
4. The maximum duration of the suspension is 120 calendar days from the Notice by fax pursuant to paragraph 5.
5. The act of suspension shall be communicated by fax, and confirmed by registered mail with return receipt to the Member of the System and, if a Trading Client, also to the General Clearing Member whose services the Trading Client uses.

Article B.2.2.3 Effects of suspension

1. From the moment of suspension from the System or Section, CC&G shall not enter further modifications to the Contractual Positions of the suspended Member of the System. CC&G may, however, allow modifications of Contractual Positions in place relating to the Derivatives Sections due to the exercise of options or through the transfers indicated at Article B.3.1.5, intended to reduce the suspended Member's exposure to risk.

2. During the period of suspension, General Clearing Members and Individual Clearing Members are obliged to fulfil their obligations to CC&G, and Trading Client are obliged to fulfil their obligations to General Clearing Members arising from their membership to the System or to the Section, according to the provisions of the documents indicated at Article A.1.1.2, paragraph 3.
3. In relation to the provisions of paragraph 2, concomitantly with the suspension measure and/or during the period of suspension, CC&G may establish risk containment measures, including requesting increased Margins.
4. The suspension shall not be revoked until the conditions that gave rise to it have been resolved.

Article B.2.2.4 Exclusion

1. CC&G shall exclude a Member from the System – with the effect of withdrawal without notice from all contractual relationships entered into with the Member – giving notice to Bank of Italy, Consob and the Management Company:
 - a) except in the case of compulsory administrative liquidation with the continuation of the business activity set out at the assignment act of the liquidators, in the case of revocation by the competent Authorities of the authorisation for the exercise of its activities, or the adoption of equivalent measures in the presence of activities subject to reciprocity measures, or in any case in breach of its authorisation to exercise its activities;
 - b) in the event of a default pursuant to Article B.6.1.1.
2. CC&G shall also exclude the following members from the System or Section – with the effect of withdrawal without notice from all contractual relationships entered into with the Member – giving notice to Bank of Italy, Consob and the Management Company:
 - a) the Clearing Member upon failure to maintain the asset requirements indicated at Article B.2.1.2, paragraphs 1, 2, 3 and 4, unless the latter has re-established them within any term conceded for their restoration pursuant to Article B.2.2.1, or has not complied with the risk containment measures pursuant to Article B.2.2.1 paragraph 3, and Article B.2.2.3, paragraph 3 or in the case it failed to submit to CC&G the declaration on the Supervisory Capital over

- 180 calendar days commencing from the submission deadline specified in the Annexes and in the Instructions;
- b) any Member of the System, if on the date of expiry of the period of suspension indicated at Article B.2.2.2, the conditions that provoked the suspension have not been resolved;
 - c) any Member that exercises its right of withdrawal pursuant to Article B.4.2.4, should it not proceed to close or transfer the Contractual Positions within the terms provided;
 - d) the Trading Client if the General Clearing Member whose services it uses has been excluded;
 - e) The Trading Client if it has been excluded from trading on a Market relating to the Section of which it is a Member.
3. CC&G may also exclude from the System or from a Section a Clearing Member who has been excluded from trading on a Market – with the same effects as indicated at paragraph 2 - notifying Bank of Italy, Consob, and the Management Company.
 4. The act of exclusion shall be communicated by fax, and confirmed by registered mail with return receipt to the Member of the System and, if a Trading Client, also to the General Clearing Member whose services it uses.

Article B.2.2.5 Effects of exclusion

1. In the event of exclusion of a Clearing Member pursuant to Article B.2.2.4, paragraph 1, letter a) the default procedures indicated at Article B.6.2.1 shall apply.
2. In the event of exclusion of a Trading Client pursuant to Article B.2.2.4, paragraph 1, sub-paragraph a), the Clearing Member is responsible for closing the Contractual Positions referable to the Trading Client, while informing CC&G of the actions taken for this purpose.
3. In the event of exclusion of a Member of the System pursuant to B.2.2.4, paragraph 1, sub-paragraph b), the provisions for the default procedures indicated at Article B.6.2.1 and Article B.6.2.2. shall be applied.
4. The exclusion of a Clearing Member from the System or a Section, pursuant to Article B.2.2.4, paragraphs 2, sub-paragraphs a) and b) and 3, shall have effect from the date in which the excluded Member does not have any Contractual Positions registered in the accounts indicated at Article B.3.1.2. Until the said date, the provisions indicated at Article B.2.2.3 shall be applied to the excluded Member.

5. The exclusion of a Trading Client from the System or Section pursuant to Article B.2.2.4, paragraph 2, letters b) and e), shall have effect from the date in which the excluded Trading Client has no more Contractual Positions registered in the General Clearing Member "client" accounts referable to the Trading Client. Until the said date, the provisions indicated at Article B.2.2.3 shall be applied to the said contracts.
6. In the event of exclusion of a Trading Client pursuant to Article B.2.2.4, paragraph 2, sub-paragraph d), the said Member's Contractual Positions shall be regulated, according to the reasons for exclusion of the General Clearing Member, pursuant to paragraphs 1, 3, and 4.
7. On conclusion of the procedures indicated in the preceding paragraphs, CC&G shall proceed to close the excluded Member's accounts in the System, calculating, in the case of exclusion of a Clearing Member, any losses and costs incurred by the intervention, attributing them, according to the method indicated at Article B.6.2.3, and returning the outstanding amount to the entitled party.
8. Any losses and costs incurred by the General Clearing Member at the end of the procedures indicated in the preceding paragraphs shall be fully charged to the said General Clearing Member, who shall cover the said losses and costs by using the Margins deposited with it by the excluded Trading Client.
9. In executing the transfer request by the Clearing Member indicated in the preceding paragraphs, CC&G shall not be liable for any further verification, only requiring the approval of the Member into whose accounts the Contractual Positions are transferred.

Article B.2.2.6 Withdrawal

1. Members may exercise their right to withdraw from membership or from one or more Sections at any time – by registered letter with return receipt which must be received by CC&G on pain of invalidity, previously sent by fax – giving notice of not less than 30 calendar days, unless otherwise agreed with CC&G.

2. In the event of amendment of the General Conditions for the supply of services and the other documents indicated at Article A.1.1.2, paragraph 3, Members of the System may exercise the right of withdrawal within the term indicated in the notification by which CC&G notifies the said amendments. The term assigned shall not in any case be less than 10 (ten) calendar days. For amendments adopted in cases of urgency, following orders issued by the competent Authorities or for technical – operational reasons, the withdrawal cannot be notified before 13:00 hours of the business day before that in which the amendment shall have effect.
3. Withdrawal from membership shall have effect with respect to each Section from the date of expiry of the Contractual Positions still outstanding on expiry of the notice period.
4. Upon expiry of the notice period indicated at paragraph 1, the provisions indicated at Article B.2.2.3, paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 shall apply to the Member of the System.
5. Where, following withdrawal from Sections, the Member is no longer a member of any Section, membership to the System shall be understood as ceasing from that moment.
6. CC&G shall immediately notify the Management Company of the withdrawal from membership to the Section and the System and, in the case of a General Clearing Member, shall also notify Trading Clients that use its services.
7. In the event of withdrawal of a General Clearing Member, the relevant Member is obliged to notify the Trading Clients that use its services. In the event of withdrawal of a Trading Clients, the relevant Member must notify the General Clearing Member whose services it uses. The said notifications must be sent concomitantly to those indicated at paragraph 1.

Article B.2.2.7 Modification of membership qualifications

1. Members of the System may modify their membership qualification to each Section by exercising preventive withdrawal pursuant to Article B.2.2.6, paragraph 1, while contemporaneously fulfilling the requirements indicated at Article B.2.1.3.

Chapter B.2.3 Relations between General Clearing Members and Trading Clients

Article B.2.3.1 General Clearing Member – Trading Client Agreement

1. Trading Clients shall sign an agreement with a General Clearing Member, adopting the outline provided by CC&G and limited to aspects of their interest and which specify the structure of the accounts applied to each Trading Client.
2. The General Clearing Member that the Trading Client uses may be different for each Section and, whether the trading activity of the Trading Client takes place through different Organisational Units, CC&G reserves to allow the Trading Client to avail themselves of different General Clearing Members for different Organisational Units, also within the same Section.
3. The agreements indicated in the preceding paragraphs must be received by CC&G, in order to allow CC&G to carry out its own verification, with advance notice of not less than five CC&G open days, unless agreed otherwise with CC&G.

Article B.2.3.2 Settlement of Contractual Positions relating to the Trading Client

1. The agreement between the General Clearing Member and the Trading Client provides that the former shall effect the final settlement of the Contractual Positions of the Trading Client transferred to it by virtue of the provisions of Article B.1.1.1, paragraph 1.

Article B.2.3.3 Suspension of the Clearing Member

1. The agreement between the General Clearing Member and the Trading Client indicated at Article B.2.3.1 provides for CC&G's suspension of the Trading Client from membership to Section or Sections – at any time and for a maximum duration of 20 calendar days on simple request and under the sole responsibility of the General Clearing Member. CC&G shall not have any obligation or right to verify the expediency or conformity of such a request to the contractual agreements existing between the General Clearing Member and the Trading Client. CC&G shall immediately notify the Management Company of the suspension. The suspended Trading Client shall continue to be obliged to settle sums outstanding with the General Clearing Member in relation to Margins or other items.

2. In the event of circumstances indicated in paragraph 1, and of other cases of suspension pursuant to Article B.2.2.2, the General Clearing Member shall remain responsible to CC&G for all the Contractual Positions referable to the Trading Client, subject to the circumstances indicated in Article B.2.2.3.
3. On elapse of the maximum period of suspension indicated at paragraph 1, the suspended Member shall be re-admitted to operate in the Section in its capacity as Trading Client, unless it has exercised its right of withdrawal from the agreement pursuant to Article B.2.3.1 and the notice period indicated at Article B.2.3.4, paragraph 1 has elapsed, and another agreement pursuant to Article B.2.3.1 has not been forwarded to CC&G according to the terms and methods indicated in Article B.2.3.1. CC&G shall immediately report any re-admission to Bank of Italy, Consob and the Management Company.

Article B.2.3.4 Withdrawal from the agreement

1. Any withdrawal from the agreement pursuant to Article B.2.3.1 must be notified by the withdrawing Member to the other contracting Member and simultaneously to CC&G and the Management Company with minimum notice of 15 calendar days. In case of suspension of the General Clearing Member or default of the Trading Client, the withdrawal may be executed without notice. In all cases, for the purposes of paragraph 3, and Article B.2.3.3, paragraph 3, the term shall begin from the date of receipt by CC&G of the notice of withdrawal.
2. The term indicated at paragraph 1, may be shortened by mutual agreement expressed by the Members involved and with the approval of CC&G.
3. In the event of the stipulation of a new agreement between the Trading Client and another General Clearing Member, CC&G shall notify the date from which the said new agreement shall have effect, it being understood that the requirements of settlement or proof of the relevant relationship may take it necessary to suspend the Trading Client from the Section pursuant to Article B.2.2.2, paragraph 2, and sub-paragraph b). GG&G shall promptly notify the Management Company of such suspension.

4. The provisions of Article B.2.3.3, paragraph 2 shall apply to any withdrawal pursuant to paragraph 1, including where suspension does not occur, with reference to the Contractual Positions registered on the expiry of the notice period for the withdrawal, unless the Contractual Positions and collaterals are transferred to the new General Clearing Member, by agreement among the Members concerned, where this is technically possible.
5. In the event of a Trading Client replacing the General Clearing Member with another General Clearing Member, the transfers of the relevant Contractual Positions and collaterals shall be effected by CC&G with the contractually expressed agreement of all Members involved, if within the time limit set by the rules governing final settlement of contracts and relevant preliminary requirements.

Chapter B.2.4 Relations with Clients

Article B.2.4.1 Porting Agreements (“segregated client” account)

1. The Clearing Member, at the time of opening of the “segregated client accounts”, shall sign an agreement with the Clients, adopting an outline provided by CC&G and limited to aspects of its interest, which documents that the Clearing Member cannot oppose the transfer of the Contractual Positions and collateral of the Clients in the event of default procedures as indicated under Article B.6.2.1. The agreement between a Clearing Member and its Clients must be communicated to CC&G for due verification, with advance notification of not less than five CC&G open days, unless different terms are agreed with CC&G itself. Withdrawal from the agreement must be communicated by the Clearing Member to CC&G with advance notice of not less than 15 calendar days. This period may be shortened by mutual agreement expressed by the parties and with the approval of CC&G.
2. If, prior to occurrence of an event of default pursuant to Article B.6.1.1, paragraph 1, the Clients have selected a Clearing Member to which to transfer the Contractual Positions and the collateral recorded in the “segregated client” account, The Designated Clearing Member shall sign an ad hoc agreement with the Clients for the purposes of administering the portability of the Contractual Positions and collateral, and shall promptly communicate this to CC&G. When the Contractual Positions registered by the Clients on their own account are distinguished from those made on behalf of others, the porting agreement will have to indicate whether that distinction also has to be maintained at the Designated Clearing Member. Withdrawal from the agreement between Clients and Designated Clearing Member must be communicated to CC&G promptly; until it receives the withdrawal notice, CC&G will operate on the basis of the agreements received.
3. For Trading Clients the agreements indicated in paragraphs 1 and 2 above are subsumed in the General Clearing Member/ Trading Client agreement, as indicated in Part B.2.3.

4. In the case where no Designated Clearing Member has been identified at the time when an event of default affecting the Clearing Member occurs pursuant to Article B.6.1.1, paragraph 1 the Clients may sign, within five CC&G open days after the default event, the agreement envisaged in paragraph 2 with the Designated Clearing Member to regulate the porting of Contractual Positions and collateral, and in this case, the Clients themselves shall take on the status of Members Pro-tem, for purposes of depositing Margins.
5. For the purposes indicated in the preceding paragraph, concomitantly with the agreement indicated in, paragraph 1, the Clients shall sign a specific agreement with CC&G contingent to the case of default of the Clearing Member. The contractual relation between the Clients and CC&G is limited to the case in which a Designated Clearing Member is not identified.

Article B.2.4.2 Porting Agreements (“gross omnibus segregated client” account)

1. If in the Indirect Clearing arrangements Indirect Clients requested that their Contractual Positions and collateral be recorded in a “gross omnibus segregated client” account pursuant to Article B.3.1.2, paragraph 2, sub-paragraph b), the Clearing Member may sign with said Clients an agreement to the effect that the Clearing Member may not object to transfer of the Indirect Clients’ Contractual Positions and collateral recorded in such accounts in the event of the default procedure pursuant to Article B.6.2.1, on condition that the Member provides CC&G with its Clients’ identification details. The agreement between a Clearing Member and its Clients must be communicated to CC&G for due verification, with advance notification of not less than five CC&G open days, unless different terms are agreed with CC&G itself. Withdrawal from the agreement between the Clearing Member and its Clients must be communicated by the Clearing Member to CC&G with advance notice of not less than 15 calendar days. This period may be shortened by mutual agreement expressed by the parties and with the approval of CC&G.
2. If, prior to occurrence of an event of default pursuant to Article B.6.1.1, paragraph 1, the Clients have selected a Clearing Member to which to transfer the Contractual Positions and the collateral of Indirect Clients registered in the “gross omnibus segregated client” account, the Designated Clearing Member shall sign an ad hoc contract with the Clients for the purposes of regulating the portability of the Contractual Positions and collateral and shall promptly communicate this to CC&G. Withdrawal from the agreement between the Clients and the Designated Clearing Member must be communicated to CC&G promptly; until it receives the withdrawal notice, CC&G will operate on the basis of the agreements received.

3. If no Designated Clearing Member was selected in advance, on occurrence of an event of default by a Clearing Member pursuant to Article B.6.1.1, paragraph 1, the Clients may sign the agreement envisaged in paragraph 2 with the Designated Clearing Member within the terms indicated under Article 2.4.1, paragraph 4 to regulate the portability of the Contractual Positions and collateral of Indirect Clients; in this case, the Clients themselves shall take on the status of Members Pro-tem, for the purpose of paying the Margins.

PART B.2.5 Porting agreements on “omnibus client” and “net omnibus segregated client” account

Article B.2.5.1 Porting Agreements (“omnibus client” account and “net omnibus segregated client” account)

1. Where Clients of the "client omnibus" account asks the Clearing Member before occurrence of an event of default pursuant to Article B.6.1.1, paragraph 1 the transfer their Contractual Positions and collateral to a Designated Clearing Member, the Clearing Member shall sign an agreement with a Designated Clearing Member drafted on the basis of a specific outline provided by CC&G, for the purpose of regulating the portability of the Contractual Positions and collateral limited to the aspects of their interest, and which documents:
 - a. the acquisition by Clearing Member of the request referred above;
 - b. the acceptance on the part of the Designated Clearing Member of the transfer of the Contractual Positions and collateral recorded in the “client omnibus” accounts of the Clearing Member and the confirmation of having adopted an agreement with the Clients on the basis of this account confirming its commitment. For the Trading Client, the Designated Clearing Member must also transmit the agreement as indicated in the above Part 2.3.
2. The agreement indicated in the preceding paragraph must be communicated to CC&G as soon as it is signed. Withdrawal from said agreement must be promptly communicated by the Clearing Member to CC&G; until it receives the withdrawal notice, CC&G will operate on the basis of the agreement received.
3. If no Designated Clearing Member is identified at the time when a Clearing Member's default event occurs, pursuant to Article B.6.1.1, paragraph 1, the Clients may sign the agreement envisaged in the preceding paragraph and the Clearing Member has to send this agreement to CC&G as soon as it is finalised and, in any event, within 3 hours after the default event. This time limit may be amended by CC&G taking into account the circumstances. The Designated Clearing Member must also provide CC&G with evidence of the fact that the Contractual Positions being transferred refer to all the Clients of the “omnibus client” account.

4. The provisions on portability agreements included in this Article shall also apply with respect to the “net omnibus segregated client” account.

PART B.3 Clearing

Chapter B.3.1 Registration of operations and clearing of contractual positions

Article B.3.1.1 Effects of concluded operations

1. With the Transfer Order indicated at Articles B.1.1.1 and B.1.1.2:
 - a) CC&G assumes with the Clearing Member the Contractual Position, credit or debit, of the Market counterparty of the Clearing Member that has effected the operation;
 - b) The General Clearing Member assumes with the Trading Clients using its services, the Contractual Position, credit or debit, of the Market counterparty of the Trading Client that has effected the operation;
 - c) CC&G assumes with the General Clearing Member the Contractual Position, credit or debit, assumed by the Trading Client using its services pursuant to letter b);
 - d) CC&G assumes with the Special Clearing Member the Contractual Position, credit or debit, assumed by the Member of the System against the Market counterparty that is a member of the guarantee system managed by the Special Clearing Member;
 - e) CC&G assumes with the Qualified Member the Contractual Position, credit or debit, stemming from the transfer to the account "Qualified Member" of the Contractual Positions of the Members who have exercised the physical delivery option for the energy futures contracts.
2. By virtue of membership of the System, each Member shall not claim from its market counterparty the fulfilment of obligations arising from contracts entered into with it in the Market to which paragraph 1 shall apply, nor may it oppose CC&G with respect to objections concerning relations with the said counterparty, nor any other objection arising from contracts stipulated on the Market by parties for which the transfer mechanisms indicated at paragraph 1 operate.

3. The causes of invalidity or unenforceability of operations effected in the Market and related compensatory or restitution actions can be asserted only between market counterparties.

Article B.3.1.2 Structure of accounts

1. CC&G shall enter the Contractual Positions of each Clearing Member into:
 - a) “house account” for Contractual Positions originating from operations concluded by the Member on its own behalf;
 - b) “omnibus client accounts” for Contractual Positions of its Clients;
 - c) “segregated client accounts”, for the Contractual Positions of their own Clients. The Contractual Positions originate from operations concluded by the Clients on their own behalf can be distinguished from the Contractual Positions originating from operations concluded by them on behalf of their clients.
1. In the context of the Contractual Positions of one of the “omnibus client” accounts, the Contractual Positions of the Trading Clients can be recorded in:
 - a) a “General Clearing Member/house-Trading Client” account;
 - b) a “General Clearing Member/client-Trading Client” account.
2. In addition to the accounts envisaged under paragraph 1, CC&G, only in respect of the Derivatives Sections, on the request of the Clearing Member acting as broker for Indirect Clearing, shall record the Contractual Positions of Indirect Clients in:
 - a) a “net omnibus segregated client” account for the Contractual Positions pertaining to the Clearing Member’s Indirect Clients recorded in an “omnibus client” account;
 - b) a “gross omnibus segregated client” account, for the Contractual Positions pertaining to the Indirect Clients of each Client of the Clearing Member which makes it possible to distinguish the Contractual Positions of each Indirect Client from those of the other Indirect Clients by recording them in specific sub-accounts.

For the purpose of opening the accounts referred to under point a) and b) of this paragraph, the Clearing Member shall ensure that the Clients are a credit institution, an authorised investment firm or an equivalent credit institution or investment firm of a third country. The Clearing Member shall provide CC&G with a declaration to this effect.

With regard to the “gross omnibus segregated client” account referred to in this paragraph, point b), the Member shall provide CC&G with all the information necessary to identify the Contractual Positions held for the account of each Indirect Client by each Client at least on a daily basis and in any case as soon as such information is available, to enable recording of such positions in the dedicated sub-accounts.

3. CC&G shall register in an account in the name of the Qualified Member the Contractual Positions transferred to the Qualified Member as a consequence of the exercise of the physical delivery option for the energy futures contracts made by Members of the Energy Derivatives Section.
4. The Clearing Members can make request to CC&G, within the limits, at the conditions and for the Sections indicated in the Instructions, for the recording of Contractual Positions in relevant sub-accounts of the accounts indicated in paragraphs 1 and 2.
5. For Contractual Positions relating to the Agricultural Commodity Derivatives Section, the registration of Clients’ Contractual Positions on subaccounts is mandatory. The opening of such subaccounts and the registration on the same of Clients’ Contractual Positions does not give rise to any relationship between CC&G and the Client in question. The information is used by CC&G and the Market Management Company exclusively for the purpose of monitoring the positions and managing the underlying delivery phase. The Instructions specify the manner, information and timetable for the opening of the subaccounts and the registration of the Contractual Positions.

Provisions in paragraph 5 will enter into force with a subsequent Notice

In the transition period the following applies:

6. For Contractual Positions relating to the Agricultural Commodity

Derivatives Section, Members shall communicate to CC&G the information on Clients' Contractual Positions open at the end of the "maturity day", specified in the Instructions. The information provided to CC&G on Clients' Contractual Positions does not give rise to any relationship between CC&G and the Customers in question. The information is used by the Market Management Company and the CC&G exclusively for the purpose of monitoring the positions and managing the underlying delivery phase. The Instructions specify the manner, information and timetable for the communication of the Contractual Positions.

Article B.3.1.3 Clearing

1. The Contractual Positions, at the time of registration in each of the accounts or any sub-accounts indicated at Article B.3.1.2 shall be cleared with the Contractual Positions already registered in the same accounts or sub-accounts with the same characteristics.
2. In the X-COM Section, such clearing is not operative and the Contractual Positions are recorded individually.

Article B.3.1.4 Operations relating to client accounts

1. CC&G shall not be held to verify the Member's powers for market operations that involve the "client" accounts registered to it.
2. Registration in "client" accounts shall not give rise to any legal relationship between CC&G and parties other than the Member to whom the said accounts are registered.

Article B.3.1.5 Transfer of contractual positions

1. The execution of Transfer Orders between Members or between the accounts of the same Member of Contractual Positions of the Derivatives Sections already registered in the System is possible, with the consent of the receiver, on the days, at the prices, and according to the terms and methods indicated in the Instructions.

2. For the Energy Derivatives Section and pursuant to specifications of the energy futures contract, for the purposes of the exercise of the physical delivery option, transfers from the accounts of the Clearing Member to the Qualified Member are permitted.
3. The transfer of Contractual Positions relating to Cash Sections is effected according to the provisions of the Instructions.
4. The registration of Transfer Orders by CC&G pursuant to the preceding paragraphs, shall produce the effects indicated at Article B.3.1.1.

Article B.3.1.6 Adjustment operations

1. In the event of company operations or operations of a general character that have an impact on the Contractual Positions - such as, inter alia capital operations, dividend distributions, public offers of takeover - CC&G shall make the necessary adjustments according to the provisions of the Instructions.

Article B.3.1.7 Error Management

1. Upon request and under the responsibility of the Management Company, and in any case in accordance with the provisions of Legislative Decree no. 210 of 12th April 2001, CC&G shall execute the Transfer Orders, issued in the context of error management with the same effects as those indicated in Article B.3.1.1.

PART B.4 Guarantee System

Chapter B.4.1 Margins

Article B.4.1.1 Initial Margins

1. CC&G requires Clearing Members to deposit initial Margins.
2. The Initial Margins due to CC&G are calculated on the basis of the following principles:
 - a) by assuming variations in the risk factors identified on the basis of statistical analysis and market conditions, taking account of the correlations between Financial Instruments that are considered significant;
 - b) determining, with a “confidence interval”, the amount of potential loss from Clearing Member’s Contractual Positions during a pre-set time span. For Contractual Positions in delivery and, in the period established in the Instructions, for the Contractual Position of the Agricultural Commodity Derivatives Section,—the Margins are calculated pursuant the modalities and timings indicated in the Services Manual (“initial Margins on positions in delivery”).
3. The methods indicated at paragraph 2 are applied for the Cash Sections, the Equity Derivatives Section and the Energy Derivatives Section on the net Contractual Positions registered in each account or subaccount indicated at Article B.3.1.2, paragraph 1, 3 and 5.
4. For the Agricultural Commodity Derivatives Section the methods indicated at paragraph 2 are applied as follows:
 - a. to the net Contractual Positions registered on each account or subaccount referred to in Article B.3.1.2 up to the CC&G Open Day preceding the “Positions monitoring day” specified in the Instructions;
 - b. to the gross Contractual Positions registered on each account or subaccount referred to in Article B.3.1.2 starting from the “Positions monitoring day”, specified in the Instructions, until the closing of each position.

Provisions in paragraph 4 will enter into force with a subsequent Notice

In the transition period the following apply:

4. For the Agricultural Commodity Derivatives Section the methods indicated at paragraph 2 are applied as follows:

- a) to the net Contractual Positions registered on each account or subaccount referred to in Article B.3.1.2 up to the “maturity day”, specified in the Instructions;
- b) to the gross Contractual Positions registered on each account or subaccount referred to in Article B.3.1.2 starting from the first CC&G open day following the “maturity day”, specified in the Instructions, until the closing of each position.

5. In the context of the X-COM Section the procedures indicated in paragraph 2, mainly result in the payment of amounts proportional to the haircut specified in the Service Manual. The payment shall be made by the Clearing Member who receives the Non-Derivative Financial Instruments at the moment of settlement of the spot transaction.

6. In the context of the X-COM Section, CC&G also requires:

- a. an initial interest rate Margin (IRMA), due from the Clearing Members beginning from the day of concluding the contract on the Market, commensurate to the interest rate of the contract traded on the Market and the cost replacement cost;
- b. a mark-to-market Margin, due from the Clearing Member that has not supplemented the Non-Derivative Financial Instruments as due according to the requirements of the Collateral Management Service in the process of administering collateral.

7. CC&G shall make a joint calculation of the Margins for the Contractual Positions

- of the Bond and ICSD Bond Sections,
- of the Share Section and the Equity Derivatives Section, in the latter case, attributing, where necessary, the said Margins to the reference Section on the basis of a proportionality criteria with respect to the separately determined Margins.

8. The Individual Clearing Member and the General Clearing Member, including in relation to the Contractual Positions recorded in the “segregated client” or “omnibus client” accounts according to the procedures indicated in Article 3.1.2, paragraph 2, may require as a service, including for information purposes only, that CC&G calculates the Margins separately for the Share Section and the Equity Derivatives Section. In this case, the Clearing Member shall also specify whether it intends to make the payment of the requested amount in the context of daily settlement on the basis of the calculation of the Margins either jointly or separately for each Section.
9. In the context of risk management procedures and according to non-discriminatory methods, CC&G may differentiate the extent of initial Margins applied to Members, giving notice to Bank of Italy and Consob.
10. In the context of the System, the Initial Margins are paid:
 - a) to CC&G, in the amount specified in paragraphs 2, 3, 4 and 7, by General Clearing Members, in respect of operations effected on their own behalf and on behalf of its own Clients;
 - b) to CC&G, in the amount specified in paragraphs 2, 3, 4 and 7, by Individual Clearing Members, in relation to operations effected on their own behalf and on behalf of its Clients;
 - c) to CC&G in the amount specified in paragraphs 2, 3, 4 and 7, by Special Clearing Members in relation to operations by Market operators that are members of the guarantee system managed by the operators themselves.
11. Clearing Members that have collected an amount from their Clients that is greater than what results under paragraphs 2, 3, 4 and 7 shall deposit these amounts with CC&G as excess initial Margins unless otherwise specified by the Indirect Clearing arrangements entered into in regard to the Contractual Positions and collateral registered in the accounts envisaged in Article B.3.1.2, paragraph 3, letter b).

12. The provisions of Article B.5.1.1 paragraph 5 shall apply to the deposit at CC&G of the Margins indicated at 1.
13. CC&G requires Special Clearing Members to establish also an additional initial Margin, determined on the basis of initial Margins calculated over a reference period.
14. The provisions stated in the aforementioned paragraphs do not apply to Qualified Members whereby they provide that the acceptance to the exercise request for physical delivery option for the energy futures contracts is subject to the deposit in advance in their favour, made by the exercising Members, of the financial guarantees sufficient to cover the total counter value of the exercised position, or to the validation of the capacity of the same members to honour the corresponding delivery of energy, depending if they are in as buyers or sellers.
15. The provision of the aforementioned paragraph 12 is subject to the following conditions:
 - a) that the aforementioned guarantees cannot be distracted from their purpose, nor be subject to any ordinary or restraining action from the creditors of the exercising Members or of the Qualified Member, also in the event of opening of an insolvency procedure;
 - b) that no action can prejudice the finality of the contracts traded on markets managed by the Qualified Member, their compensation and the related payments.
16. The Participant to the System shall make the payments referred to in the preceding paragraphs pursuant to Articles 41 and 42 of the EMIR Regulation and pursuant of the Article 79-septies of the CLF except for the payments made in the Agricultural Commodity Derivatives Section, from the time of the matching of the counterparties to the end of trading phase of the contract, where the guarantees are established only pursuant and for the effect of the Legislative Decree 21 May 2004 no. 170, where expressly mentioned, and for which the CC&G ensures and maintains internal evidence to enable the identification of the date of the setting up and the financial assets designated as guarantee.

Article B.4.1.2 Daily variation Margins

1. The daily variation Margins are determined by CC&G on a daily basis and calculated for each Contractual Position in futures registered on each of the accounts or sub-accounts indicated in article B.3.1.2 until the last day of trading of the contract.
2. The amount of the daily variation Margins is equal to:
 - a) for Contractual Positions arising from operations on the current trading day, the difference between the daily settlement price of the current day and the trading price;
 - b) for Contractual Positions arising from operations on previous trading days, the difference between the daily settlement price of the current day and the daily settlement price on the previous Market business day.
3. The daily variation Margins are paid between CC&G and Clearing Members, including the Qualified Members.
4. Margins in the form of premiums, applied to Contractual Positions in options, are paid between CC&G and Clearing Members on the CC&G open day following the trading day.
5. For the payment of Margins pursuant to the present article, Article B.5.1.1, paragraph 5 shall apply.

Article B.4.1.3 Additional Intraday Margins

1. Additional intraday Margins may be requested if the fluctuations in prices of Financial Instruments or the variation of risk factors significantly increases CC&G's exposure to risk, or in any other case in which the Clearing Member has assumed an overall risk position considered by CC&G to be high.
2. The supplement due to CC&G as additional intraday Margins is equal to the difference, if positive, between:
 - a) the total amount of initial Margins, including mark-to-market-Margins for X-COM Section, daily variation Margins, Margins in the form of premiums and of final settlement of differentials, calculated on the

- Contractual Positions* outstanding at the time of their calculation and valued at current market values or, subordinately, taking account of the theoretical values, and
- b) assets to the same effect already deposited at the time of calculation.
3. Alternatively, CC&G may, in cases of urgent necessity, establish the amount indicated at paragraph 2, letter a) as a percentage of the amount of the initial Margins, indicated at Article B.4.1.1, paragraphs 2 and 3, in relation to the Contractual Positions outstanding at the end of the previous Market business day.
 4. CC&G may require payment in cash of the mark-to-market Margins mentioned in Article B.4.1.1, paragraph 6, letter b), even apart from the calculation referred to in paragraph 2, in case the Clearing Member to the X-COM Section has taken a risk position in that Section that is considered high by CC&G.
 5. The term, which shall not be less than thirty minutes, within which the payment must be made in cash or in Financial Instruments pursuant to the subsequent Article B.4.3.1, shall be notified simultaneously with the request for supplement.
 6. In exceptional cases, for the Share Section and for the Derivatives Sections, CC&G may request the Management Company to suspend trading for the period necessary to request the additional intraday Margins.
 7. CC&G may require Clearing Members to deposit additional intraday Margins on a daily basis, identified on the basis of general application criteria.

Article B.4.1.4 Daily Settlement Prices

1. The daily settlement prices used by CC&G to calculate the Margins are calculated by CC&G according to the provisions of the Instructions.

Chapter B.4.2. Default Funds

Article B.4.2.1 Establishment and contribution

1. CC&G shall establish the following separate Default Funds, one relating to the Share and Equity Derivatives Sections, one relating to the Energy Derivatives Section, one relating to the Agricultural Commodity Derivatives Section and one relating to the Bond, ICSD Bond and X-COM Sections. The said Default Funds to be used to partially cover charges deriving from necessary default procedure operations regarding Clearing Members and the Contractual Positions of the relevant Sections.
2. The total amount of each Default Fund is determined periodically by CC&G and notified by the methods set out in Article A.1.1.4, paragraph 2.
3. The Default Fund for the Share Section and the Equity Derivatives Sections is made up exclusively of the payments of Clearing Members to the said Sections. The Default Fund for the Bond, ICSD Bond and X-COM Sections is made up exclusively of the payments of Clearing Members to these Sections. The Default Fund for the Energy Derivatives Section is established exclusively from payment of Clearing Members to that Section. The Default Fund for the Agricultural Commodity Derivatives Section is established exclusively from the payments of Clearing Members to that Section and from the time of the matching of the counterparties to the end of trading phase of the contract, the Default Fund is established only pursuant and for the effect of the Legislative Decree 21 May 2004 no. 170 and for which the CC&G ensures and maintains internal evidence to enable the identification of the date of the setting up and the financial assets designated as guarantee.
4. The payments indicated at paragraph 3 are established in the manner indicated by CC&G on the basis of Initial Margins paid, for the respective Sections, by Clearing Members in a reference period. For the X-COM Section the payments referred to in paragraph 3, to be done by both the delivering and receiving Clearing Member of the spot transaction, are calculated on the basis of the haircuts defined by CC&G as referred to in Article B.4.1.1, paragraph 5, as well as on the initial interest rate Margins referred to in Article B.4.1.1, paragraph 6 letter. a).The Initial Margins considered also include those relating to Contractual Positions registered in the “client” accounts. CC&G establishes a minimum contribution to the Default Fund.

5. Methods for calculation, adjustment, and depositing of the payments indicated at paragraph 4 are indicated in the Instructions.
6. The adjustment of cash payments takes place under the terms indicated at Article B.5.1.1, paragraph 5.
7. Special Clearing Members, Qualified Members, Central Banks of the European Union and the Ministry of Economy and Finance do not participate to Default Fund.

Article B.4.2.2 Use

1. Each Default Fund is used by the methods and in the order indicated in Article B.6.2.3.
2. The Default Fund can be used for more than one time during the course of the default procedure.

Article B.4.2.3 Establishment of a new Default Fund

1. Where, following an event of default pursuant to Article B.6.1.1, the resources of the Default Fund fall below the Minimum Value of the Default Fund, CC&G shall request the Clearing Members other than the defaulting Clearing Member to establish a new Default Fund, the amount of which shall be at least equal to the Minimum Value of Default Fund. The establishment of the new Default Fund shall be completed by the non-defaulting Clearing Members by the deadline indicated in the Instructions.
2. Following the establishment of the Minimum Value of Default Fund indicated in paragraph 1, and in any case no later than 30 CC&G open days thereafter, CC&G shall proceed to recalculate the amount of the new Default Fund. Following this recalculation, CC&G shall request Clearing Members other than the defaulting Clearing Member to pay the remaining amount regarding the new Default Fund. The payment of the remaining amount of the new Default Fund shall be made by the non-defaulting Clearing Members within the deadline indicated in the Instructions.

3. Payments for establishment pursuant to paragraph 1 and 2 can not be used to meet charges arising from the default procedures preceding such establishment.

Article B.4.2.4 Withdrawal and exclusion following the request of establishment of a new Default Fund

1. Following the request by CC&G for the establishment of a new Default Fund, pursuant to the previous Article, the Clearing Member may notify its withdrawal from the Sections for which the Default Fund has been used, within the term of 2 CC&G open days following the request for establishment indicated, in derogation of the terms of prior notice indicated at Article B.2.2.6, paragraph 1. In such case the establishment of the new Default Fund is not due.
2. For the Clearing Member who withdraws pursuant to the previous paragraph, the provisions under Article B.2.2.3 shall apply. The withdrawal shall be effective from the date of the closing or of the transfer of the existing Contractual Positions, which shall in any event take place no later than 20 CC&G open days from the date on which the withdrawal has been notified. In the case the withdrawing Clearing Member does not proceed to the closure or the transfer within that timeframe, CC&G will proceed with the exclusion of the Clearing Member from the Section concerned pursuant to Article B.2.2.4 and with the closure of its Contractual Positions on the market.
3. The Clearing Member who has withdrawn, during the period before the withdrawal has effect, may not establish new Contractual Positions, and shall be subject to an increase in Margins equal to 50% of the Margins paid. During said period, the contributions to the Default Fund of the withdrawing Clearing Member may be used, besides for covering the default procedure preceding the establishment of the new Default Fund, also in case of default of the withdrawing Clearing Member during the said period.
4. In cases of withdrawal from a Section, the payment to the relevant Default Fund is returned after all the withdrawing Member's obligations arising from the Section have been fulfilled pursuant to Article B.2.2.3, paragraph 2, and provided the said amount is not usable pursuant to paragraph 3.

5. In cases of a withdrawal other than those indicated by Article B.4.2.3, or in the case of exclusion from Sections pursuant to Article B.4.2.1, paragraph 1 the payment – where not usable for default procedures, including those started in the notice period – is returned to the Member on the CC&G open day following that in which the withdrawal or exclusion has effect, unless in wider terms it is not necessary for the CC&G interventions indicated in Article B.6.2.1 and subsequent interventions.

Article B.4.2.5 Request for payment of additional resources

1. CC&G shall request Clearing Members other than the defaulting Clearing Member to make a further contribution to the Default Fund for the Section in question, where as a result of the Losses Suffered by CC&G following an event of default that has occurred under Article B.6.1.1, the resources in the Default Fund fall by or below 30% or more of its amount. This request for payment constitutes a recovery measure of CC&G, as provided for by the CPMI-IOSCO Report on the recovery of financial market infrastructures, published in October 2014.
2. The payment indicated in paragraph 1 shall be requested to the Clearing Members other than the defaulting Clearing Member within the limit equal to the respective contributions to the Default Fund of the Section concerned established under Article B.4.2.1 e shall be made within 1 CC&G open day following the date of the request for payment on the part of CC&G, notified to the Clearing Members of the System in question in the form of a special Notice. The payment of the contribution under paragraph 1 may be requested also through different tranches during the default management procedure.
3. The contributions of each Clearing Member to the Default Fund established under Article B.4.2.1 and the additional resources paid under this Article B.4.2.5 may be used to meet the losses arising from one or more events of default which may occur during the Defaulting Period.

Article B.4.2.6 Withdrawal and exclusion

In cases of a withdrawal other than those indicated by Article B.4.2.4, or in the case of exclusion from Sections pursuant to Article B.2.2.4, the payment – where not usable for default procedures, including those started in the notice period – is returned to the Member on the CC&G open day following that in which the withdrawal or exclusion has effect, unless in wider terms it is not necessary for the CC&G interventions indicated in Article B.6.2.1 and subsequent interventions.

Article B.6.2.1 Default of a Clearing Member

1. In the event of a default indicated in Article B.6.1.1, paragraph 1 by a Clearing Member, subject to the provisions of Article B.6.1.2, CC&G:
 - a) shall transfer to the Designated Clearing Member the Contractual Positions and collateral recorded in the “segregated client” accounts envisaged in Article B.3.1.2, paragraph 1, subparagraph c) and the Contractual Positions and collateral recorded in the “gross omnibus segregated client” account referred to in Article B.3.1.2 paragraph 3 point b), if accounts for which the documentation provided for in Article B.2.4.1, paragraph 2 and in Article B.2.4.2, paragraph 2 has been transmitted to CC&G before the default event;
 - b) shall transfer to the Designated Clearing Member the Contractual Positions and collateral recorded in the “client omnibus” account and the “net omnibus segregated client” account pursuant to Article B.3.1.2, paragraph 3, subparagraph b) if the documentation as indicated in Article B.2.5.1, paragraph 1 has been sent to CC&G before the default event;
 - c) if no Designated Clearing Member had been identified at the time an event of default occurred, shall ask the Members Pro-tem to transmit the documentation indicated in Article B.2.4.1, paragraph 2, for the “segregated client” accounts and in Article B.2.4.2, paragraph 2 for gross omnibus segregated client” accounts within the deadline indicated in Article B.2.4.1, paragraph 4.

Following receipt of the documentation, CC&G shall transfer the Contractual Positions and collateral of the Clients to the Members Pro-tem.

In such event, in the period between the moment in which non-fulfilment has been identified until the moment of transferring the Contractual Positions and collateral, the Members Pro-tem shall be requested to pay Margins; CC&G shall specify the payment procedure.

If the documentation pursuant to Article B.2.4.1, paragraph 2, or Article B.2.4.2, paragraph 2, is not transmitted by the indicated deadline or the Members Pro-tem do not proceed to pay the requested Margins, the procedure described in paragraph e) below shall be implemented.

- d) If no Designated Member is identified when an event of default occurs, shall transfer the Contractual Positions and the collateral registered in the “omnibus clients” account and in the “net omnibus segregated clients” account to the Designated Member, if the documentation indicated in Article B.2.5.1., paragraph 1, is transmitted by the deadline indicated in paragraph 3 of the same Article. If the requested documentation is not sent by that deadline, the procedure described in paragraph e) below shall be implemented;
- e) shall request to the Member Pro-tem that they transmit the documentation indicated in Article B.2.4.1, paragraph 2, for the “segregated client” accounts, other than those indicated in the above letter a), within five CC&G open days.

In such event, in the period between the moment in which non-fulfilment has been identified until the moment of transferring the Contractual Positions and collateral, the Member Pro-tem shall be requested to pay Margins; CC&G shall specify the payment procedure. Following receiving the documentation, CC&G shall transfer the Contractual Positions and collateral of the Clients to the Member Pro-tem.

For Member Pro-tem which communicate to CC&G that they do not intend to complete the documentation indicated in Article B.2.4.1, paragraph 2, and for the Member Pro-tem that do not proceed to pay the requested Margins, procedures shall be implemented as indicated in letter d) below.

- f) in relation to the Contractual Positions:
 - i. CC&G shall appoint a Member to close the Contractual Positions on the market, including any resulting from clearing between accounts and any sub-accounts indicated in Article B.3.1.2, in Derivative Financial Instruments;

- ii. CC&G shall request the exclusion from the Pre-settlement Service or from the Settlement Services or from the Collateral Management Service of the operations relating to the Contractual Positions that refer to the defaulting party, without prejudice of the rules of functioning of such services on entry and irrevocability of the transmission orders pursuant to Directive 98/26/EC;
 - iii. CC&G shall clear the Contractual Positions and Failed Contractual Positions relating to the defaulting Member excluded from the Pre-settlement Service, from the Settlement Service or from the Collateral Management Service;
 - iv. CC&G shall appoint a broker to negotiate the contracts necessary to enable settlement of balances resulting from the clearing activities referred to in the preceding sub-paragraph;
 - v. also in derogation of what is indicated in the above points, CC&G can adopt any other measures considered necessary for managing the default in order to limit the effects on the market and on the other Members.
- g) in relation to Contractual Positions of the Agricultural Commodity Derivatives Section and of the Energy Derivatives Section, sub-paragraph d), from i) to iv) shall not apply. In relation to such Contractual Positions CC&G shall:
- i. appoint a Member to close the Contractual Positions, on the Market except for Contractual Positions in Delivery, including any resulting from clearing between accounts and subaccounts referred to in Article B.3.1.2;
 - ii. if the market is highly illiquid, settle the differentials of Contractual Positions except for Contractual Positions in Delivery by assigning such Contractual Positions to another Member or other Members with corresponding Contractual Positions in Delivery of the opposite sign, identified on a random basis;
 - iii. settle the differentials of Contractual Positions in Delivery according to the Instructions by assigning such Contractual Positions to another Member or other Members with corresponding Contractual Positions in Delivery of the opposite sign, identified on a random basis.

2. By way of derogation from paragraph 1, in relation to Contractual Positions of the Agricultural Commodity Derivatives Section:
 - a) in cases of default due to failure to attest the complete or partial covering of sales positions, CC&G shall settle the differentials of the Contractual Positions in Delivery that give rise to the default according to paragraph 1, letter e);
 - b) in cases of failure to make final settlement due to the quality of the underlying, CC&G shall indemnify the assigned counterparty by way of settlement of the cash differential;
 - c) in cases of failure to pay the value of the underlying, CC&G shall indemnify the selling counterparty for the entire value of the Contractual Position in Delivery that give rise to the default.

In such cases – without prejudice to subsequent recovery actions against the defaulter – CC&G shall settle the amount due, by charging it to the Margins and, for any excess in the daily settlement referred to in Article B.5.1.1; if it is not possible to settle the differential in the daily settlement, CC&G shall apply paragraph 1.

3. Once all defaulting member's positions have been closed, CC&G shall proceed to close the accounts of the defaulting Member, and shall calculate the costs incurred in the operation, charging them according to the method indicated at B 6.2.3.

Article B.6.2.2. Default of Trading Clients

1. Where one of the cases of default indicated in Article B.6.1.1, paragraph 4 by a Trading Client takes place the Clearing Member is responsible for closing the Contractual Positions of the defaulting Member. For this purpose, the Clearing Member, under their own responsibility, can among other things:
 - a. request that CC&G record new Contractual Positions referable to the defaulting Trading Client, that permit reduction of their own risk;
 - b. carry out clearing among the Contractual Positions referable to the defaulting Trading Client, without prejudice to the prompt fulfilment of obligations for the delivery of Non-Derivative Financial Instruments due to CC&G.

The Clearing Member is responsible for informing CC&G of the actions undertaken for the purposes of closing the Contractual Positions of the defaulting Trading Client.

2. If a Trading Client acting as broker for Indirect Clearing incurs one of the cases of default referred to in Article B.6.1.1, paragraph 1, letter b) and paragraph 4, the General Clearing Member is responsible for closing the Contractual Positions of the defaulting Trading Client, unless otherwise provided by the indirect clearing agreements in relation to the trigger of the porting procedures designed to transfer the Indirect Clients' Contractual Positions and collateral.
3. If the defaulting Trading Client pursuant to paragraph 1 arranges, in the context of the Settlement Services, for the final settlement of the Contractual Positions vis-à-vis the Clearing Member:
 - a) the Clearing Member must still arrange for final settlement in due time with CC&G of the transactions referable to the defaulting Trading Client;
 - b) CC&G shall request – on behalf of the General Clearing Member – exclusion from the Pre-settlement Service or from the Settlement Services of operations guaranteed by the System that refer to the Trading Client, without prejudice of the rules of functioning of such services on entry and irrevocability of the transmission orders pursuant to Directive 98/26/EC;
4. Any losses and costs incurred by the General Clearing Member at the end of the default procedure indicated in this article shall be at the entire expense of the said General Clearing Member.

Article B.6.2.2 bis Default of the Special Clearing Member or its service termination

1. Where one of the cases of default indicated in Article B.6.1.1, paragraph 3 by a Special Clearing Member takes place, CC&G:
 - i. requests the exclusion from the Pre-settlement Service or from the Settlement Service of all the Contractual Positions referred to the Special Clearing Member, without prejudice to the operational rules of such services in the matter of insertion and irrevocability of transfer orders pursuant to Directive 98/26/EC;
 - ii. requests to the Management Company(ies) that trading be suspended on the relevant Market;
 - iii. clears the Contractual Positions as indicated in the preceding point i), modifying the terms of the contracts traded as regards the expiry and may adopt any other necessary measure for

- managing the default in order to minimise the impacts for the market and for Members;
- iv. proceeds to cash settlement of the Contractual Positions at a price determined on a reasonable commercial basis, as indicated in the Instructions.
2. In derogation from the provisions of Article B.6.2.3, CC&G – without prejudice to any subsequent recovery actions against the defaulting Special Clearing Member – shall allocate the losses and costs sustained in the event of activating the default procedure of a Special Clearing Member as indicated in Article B.6.1.1, paragraph 3, in the following order:
- a) to the Margins paid by the Special Clearing Member and to the proceeds from clearing of the Contractual Positions as provided above;
 - b) to the assets of CC&G, within the limits established through a specific Notice;
 - c) pro rata to the Members with positive balances following cash settlement, as indicated under the preceding paragraph 1, point iv), through a proportional reduction of the sums due from CC&G; any remaining losses are allocated to the Members pro rata to their contribution to the Default Fund of the Bond Section, taking as reference the date of the default of the Special Clearing Member. In this case, the contributions made to such Default Fund related to the X-Com Section and the ICSD Section and the contributions of Members which exclusively carry out trading on the Markets indicated under Article B.2.1.2, paragraph 3 are not taken into account.
3. Where the Special Clearing Member ceases the central counterparty service in respect to its own members and also proceeds to cash settlement with CC&G, CC&G reserves the right to execute the cash settlement against the participant of the relevant Market and to adopt any other necessary measure for managing the default in order to minimise the impacts for the market and for Members pursuant to this article.

Article B.6.2.2-ter Default of CC&G

1. In the event of:

- a) a CC&G default pursuant to Article B.6.1.3 letter a), the non-defaulting Clearing Member may notify CC&G a written statement specifying a Close-Out Date for the termination and liquidation of all Contractual Positions registered in its account structure; or
 - b) a CC&G default pursuant to Article B.6.1.3 letter b), CC&G will make available a notice on its website specifying the Close-Out Date. In case of failure by CC&G to make available such notice on its website on the CC&G open day following the CC&G open day on which CC&G becomes subject to the insolvency procedure pursuant to article 79-vicies, paragraph 2 of CLF, then each individual non-defaulting Clearing Member shall be entitled to designate a Close-Out Date by notice in writing to CC&G.
2. As from the Close Out Date pursuant to paragraph 1, neither CC&G nor the non-defaulting Clearing Member, shall be obliged to make any further payment or delivery under any Contractual Position between them which would have fallen due for performance on or after the Close-Out Date.
 3. Following CC&G's default pursuant to one of the conditions of Article B.6.1.3, paragraph 1, the non-defaulting Clearing Member, having duly notified the Close Out Date, determines on the Close-Out Date or as soon as possible after such date, the Close-Out Amount, by calculating:
 - a) its total loss or total gain, as the case may be, in respect of each Contractual Position expressed in Euro; and
 - b) the value of any other amounts which it owes to CC&G and which CC&G owes to it, in each case whether future, liquidated or unliquidated.

The calculation under letter a) and b) shall be undertaken separately with respect to: (i) the "house account"; (ii) each "client omnibus account"; and (iii) each "segregated client account", and (iv) each "net omnibus segregated client" account and (v) each "gross omnibus segregated client" account and (iv) each sub-account of each gross omnibus segregated client" account pursuant to Article B.3.1.2. Once calculation of the Close-Out Amount is made, the non-defaulting Clearing Member shall notify as soon as possible such amount in writing to CC&G showing in reasonable detail how it has been calculated.

4. For the purposes of calculation of the Close-Out Amount pursuant to paragraph 3 (a) above, the non-defaulting Clearing Member shall:

- a) aggregate all positive and negative amounts related to the Contractual Positions related to the “house account” pursuant to Article B.3.1.2 to produce one net amount; and
 - b) aggregate: (i) all positive and negative amounts related to the Contractual Positions with respect to each client account registered as an “omnibus client” and each “net omnibus segregated client” account pursuant to Article B.3.1.2 to produce one net amount for each of such “omnibus client” accounts; and (ii) all positive and negative amounts related to the Contractual Positions with respect to each “segregated client” account and each “gross omnibus segregated client” account and each sub-account of each “gross omnibus segregated client” account registered pursuant to Article B.3.1.2. to produce a net amount for such accounts.
5. For the purpose of the calculation to be made pursuant to paragraph 3 letter b) above, the non-defaulting Clearing Member will determine the value of Margins that, as of the Close-Out Date, CC&G is due to return to it in accordance with these Regulations.
 6. In the event that the Close-Out Amount in respect of an account is: (i) a positive amount, CC&G shall pay it to the non-defaulting Clearing Member; and (ii) a negative amount, the non-defaulting Clearing Member shall pay it to CC&G.
 7. The non-defaulting Clearing Member's rights pursuant to this Article B.6.2.2-ter shall be in addition to, and not in limitation or exclusion of, any other rights which the Clearing Member may have.
 8. This Article B.6.2.2-ter shall be without prejudice to the rights that CC&G may have pursuant to the Regulations against any Clearing Member prior to the occurrence of CC&G's default pursuant to Article B.6.1.3.

Article B.6.2.3. Costs for management of default procedures of a Clearing Member

1. Subject to subsequent recovery actions against the party in default, where the default procedure indicated at Article B.6.2.1 is triggered, CC&G shall allocate the losses and costs in the following order:
 - a) to the Margins and payments to the Default Funds (including the replacement guarantees indicated at Article A.1.1.5, paragraph 4), deposited by the Member in default and those arising from the closing of the Contractual Positions;

- b) to the guarantee, if deposited by the defaulting Member, indicated at Article B.2.1.2, paragraph 5;
- c) to the assets of CC&G within the limits established with a specific Notice pursuant to article 35 of the Regulation no. 153/2013 of the European Commission, implementing article 45 of the EMIR Regulation;
- d) to the contributions to the Default fund of the other Clearing Members of the Section concerned, pro rata to the payments made and limited to the losses and costs incurred in relation exclusively to the Contractual Positions of the Section;
- e) CC&G own resources, up to the amount published on CC&G's Internet site (www.lseq.com/ccg).
- f) to the additional resources paid by the Clearing Members pursuant to Article B.4.2.5 pro rata to their contribution to the Default Fund of the Section concerned.

Any remaining losses following the actions set out under the preceding points will be allocated by CC&G pro rata to the Clearing Members to the Section concerned up to a maximum amount equal to 50% of the payment of the additional resources pursuant to Article B.4.2.5.

2. In the event of default of a Clearing Member.

- a) the assets held in the “omnibus client” and “segregated client” accounts, and in the “net omnibus segregated client” and “gross omnibus segregated client” account pursuant to Article B.3.1.2 shall not be used to close the “house” account and any existing sub-accounts;
- b) the assets held in the “house” account shall be used, where necessary, for the closure of the Contractual Positions registered in the “omnibus client” and “segregated client” accounts and in the “net omnibus segregated client” account and in the “gross omnibus segregated client” account pursuant to Article B.3.1.2 and any existing sub-accounts;

3. At the end of the procedures indicated in this Article, any balances of the defaulting Clearing Member in excess of the amount necessary to cover any losses sustained shall be returned by CC&G to the Clearing

Member itself, with indication of the assets of each “omnibus client” account, “net omnibus segregated client” account and “gross omnibus segregated client” account and each sub-account related to each “gross omnibus segregated client” account pursuant to Article B.3.1.2, paragraph 3 or of each Member Pro-tem, where in managing the default procedure CC&G did not succeed in transferring the relevant positions and assets.

Article B.6.2.4. Recovery of losses and costs

1. CC&G shall proceed against the defaulting Clearing Member with appropriate recovery operations for losses and costs incurred by interventions indicated in Article B.6.2.1 and subsequent articles, on its own behalf and on behalf of Members of the Default Funds where it is used.
2. Sums recovered pursuant to paragraph 1 – net of costs incurred by CC&G for administration of the default – shall be returned to their rightful claimants in the inverse order with respect to that indicated in Article B.6.2.3, paragraph 1. Sums due to Members are returned to each in proportion to the use of the relative payment to the Default Funds.

PART B.7 Service Closure

Article B.7.1.1 Service Closure Procedure

1. CC&G retains the power, for risk containment reasons, of closing the central counterparty service, with reference to the Section concerned upon Notice to the competent Authorities. To this end, CC&G may consider, by way of example, the following elements: the relevance of the mitigation of counterparty risk for Clearing Members, the number of Clearing Members, the amount of guaranteed countervalues.
2. Where the closing of service is determined, CC&G:
 - i. requests exclusion from the Pre-settlement Service or the Settlement Services of the transactions deriving from the Contractual Positions referable to the Section concerned, without prejudice to the operational rules of such services as concerns insertion and irrevocability of transfer orders, pursuant to EC Directive 98/26;
 - ii. requests the Management Company to suspend trading on the Market concerned;
 - iii. proceeds to cash settlement of the Contractual Positions at a price determined according to reasonable commercial conditions, as indicated in the Instructions.

PART B.8 Fees, Interest and Transparency of prices and commissions

Article B.8.1.1 Fees

1. For the use of the guarantee system managed by CC&G, Members shall pay the fees established by the Price List annexed to the General Conditions for the provision of Services.
2. The amount of fees due from each Member is communicated to them in the clearing reports indicated in the Services Manual.

Article B.8.1.2 Interest

1. Interest at a rate indicated in the Notices shall be paid on cash guarantees deposited with CC&G.

Article B.8.1.3 Transparency of prices and commissions applied

1. CC&G and the Clearing Members shall publicly disclose the prices and commissions for the services provided, with separate publication of the prices and commissions of each service, including discounts and reductions, as well as the conditions to be met for qualifying for such benefits.

SECTION C – TEMPORARY PROVISIONS

Article C.1.1.1 Gross margination of sub-accounts

1. Following the provisions of Article B.1.1.4, paragraph 3, letter a), CC&G, shall indicate the methods of activation of gross margination of the sub-accounts by means of the relevant Notice for the sections where this service has not yet activated.

Article C.1.1.2 Entry into Force

1. Amendments of provisions contained in these Regulations shall apply in whole or in part starting from the date or dates indicated by CC&G by way of the appropriate Notices, including with respect to Contractual Positions existing on the said date or dates.

SECTION D – Final provisions

Article D.1.1.1 Jurisdiction

1. The present Regulations, Instructions, and other provisions concerning the operations of the System and the services, and successive amendments and supplements, are governed by Italian law.

Article D.1.1.2 Disputes

1. Disputes concerning the fees as indicated in Part B.7 shall be submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of Italian judicial system and are the exclusive competence of the Court of Milan.
2. Any disputes other than those provided for under paragraph 1, which derive directly or indirectly from the Regulations (including those concerning compensation for damages), shall first be submitted to preliminary evaluation by a Board of Advisers.

Article D.1.1.3 Board of Advisers

1. The Board of Advisers is composed of three members appointed by the CC&G Board of Directors, which also elects the president from among the three members. The legal seat of the Board of Advisers is at the CC&G.
2. The members of the Board of Advisers are independent persons chosen for their proven competence in issues of financial markets.
3. The duration of the Board of Advisers appointment is for three years and can be renewed. Where one of the members retires from the Board prior to completion, the CC&G Board of Directors provides for appointment of a substitute; such appointment shall last until the completion of the current Board.

4. The evaluations of the Board of Advisers shall be prepared with explanation, according to legal and adversarial principles, and issued within 30 (thirty) days from the moment the Board receives the case.
5. The president of the Board of Advisers may assign, in agreement with the other members, the evaluation of the issue to a sole member of the Board. The language for procedures shall be Italian.
6. The evaluations by the Advisers are promptly communicated to the Participants in written form. The evaluations are not binding on the parties and where one of these initiates an arbitration procedure as indicated in paragraph 7, do not have any binding effect on the arbitrators appointed, who shall have wide opportunity and power to undertake a total and full re-examination of the dispute, without preclusion.
7. Any potential disputes between CC&G and a Member concerning and/or arising from the Regulations, which have not been resolved through participation of the Parties in the evaluation by the Board of Advisers as indicated in the previous paragraph, are referred to a Board of Arbitrators.
8. The honoraria for the members of the Board of Advisers shall be allocated to the losing party.

Article D.1.1.4 Board of Arbitrators

1. The Board of Arbitrators is composed of three members, appointed through the following procedure:
 - a) the claimant must notify the respondent, according to the procedure provided under Article 810, paragraph 1 of the civil procedures code, by a document containing the declaration of the claimant's intention to initiate an arbitration procedure, with indication of the disputed issue and designation of the claimant's arbitrator;
 - b) within 20 (twenty) days of this notification, the Respondent must, by the same procedure, designate the second arbitrator; in absence of such appointment, Article 810, paragraph 2, of the civil procedures code shall apply;

- c) within the 20 (twenty) days following the notification of the Claimant of the document containing the appointment of the second arbitrator, the arbitrators thus appointed – each duly informed by the Party that nominated him or her – shall proceed in mutual agreement for the appointment of the third arbitrator, who shall serve as president. In case of delay or failure to agree within the time periods indicated above, either party can make request to the president of the Court of Milan for the appointment of the second and/or third arbitrator.

In the case of substitution of the arbitrators the same procedures shall be followed as for the initial appointments.

2. The procedures before the Board of Arbitrators must be initiated, subject to forfeiture, within 60 (sixty) days from receiving the communication of the provisions concerning the Member.
3. The legal seat of the Board of Arbitrators shall be in Milan at the place established by its president. However the Board of Arbitrators may conduct its meetings in any place of the Republic of Italy, as established by the Board. The Board shall proceed according to legal principles and decide according to the rule of Italian law.
4. The arbitral decision must be issued within 90 (ninety) calendar days of the acceptance of appointment on the part of the President of the Board, a term which can be extended for not more than a further 90 (ninety) days, only in the case that the Board of Arbitrators considers it necessary to obtain reports from technical experts. The decision shall contain the calculation and the allocation of the arbitration expenses and the compensation for the arbitrators. The language of arbitration proceedings shall be Italian. It is understood that the Parties can ask for registration and execution of the decision under the code of civil procedure in effect. The decision can be challenged for violation of the rule of law concerning the issue in dispute, pursuant to Article 829, paragraph 3, of the code of civil procedure. For disputes not considered under the present article, the provisions of the above-noted Article 806 and following of the code of civil procedure shall apply.
