

FTSE Partnership Index Series Non-Display Usage

Effective 1st January 2016, FTSE Group will introduce a new tiered fee structure for the following FTSE Partnership Index Series Non-Display Usage:

- STI and FTSE ST Index Series
- FTSE Bursa Malaysia Index Series

The introduction of these tiered fees is to align these partnership index series with the FTSE real time global index package fee structure.

All pricing details can be found in the customer declaration:

<http://www.londonstockexchange.com/products-and-services/market-data/realtimedata/pricesandpolicies/pricesandpolicies.htm>

Please can all customers in receipt of the above data complete and return the declaration to realtimedata@lseg.com prior to 1st January 2016.

Where appropriate, we kindly ask you to communicate this new pricing to your clients.

If you require any clarification on this notification, please contact London Stock Exchange Real Time Data Business Development Team directly at: realtimedata@lseg.com.
