Re: XCOM: suspension of the non guaranteed market section and OTC

Dear Client,

We inform you that starting from 2 August 2018 the operations of OTC and non-guaranteed transactions of the X-COM Collateral Management Service will be suspended until further market notice by Monte Titoli.

Therefore, as from that date, the validity of the rules relating contained in the Regulations and in the instructions of the Service is suspended. The provisions subject to suspension were specifically highlighted in the documents published on the Monte Titoli website.
