MARKET NOTICE 2013/039

Turquoise Derivatives launches Liquidity Provider Scheme on OBX Index Futures

Turquoise would like to inform that from Monday 3rd June 2013, a Liquidity Provider Scheme is available for OBX Index Futures.

This scheme aims at developing the liquidity on the screen while giving flexibility to members willing to focus on quoting only OBX Index Futures.

The Liquidity Provider will quote the first two expiring OBX Futures; please find all details in the documents enclosed.

Members interested in applying to this scheme shall contact Turquoise Sales Team at derivatives@tradeturquoise.com

Best Regards
