T2S Release 5.0 – binding XSDs delivery

For the attention of: DCPs
Re: T2S Release 5.0 – binding XSDs delivery

Dear Client,

As announced in ON No. 50 of 15 December 2020 and further notices on the subject, please note that the final documentation entitled "Binding XSD", received from the European Central Bank on 27 January 2021, has been published.

Please note that the message schemes below have changed from the previously published non-binding XSDs:

- camt.004
- semt.019
- sese.028

Please be also informed that the messages will contain the status "work in progress" until the successful deployment in production environment of R5.0. This was agreed with the T2S community and represents the fact that until this dates customer testing is ongoing and therefore the messages still might be subject to changes.

Relevant documentation

The file containing the final documentation including the links to the final XSDs, entitled "T2S Release Note V.00.05.00.01(R 5.0 package 1)_Annex MyStandards-Links" has been published in the document
