

Persons Authorised To Request Order Deletions

If a member firm encounters a system problem, which prevents it from accessing the order book, it shall notify the Exchange and an authorised person of the member firm may request the deletion of either all its orders on the book or specific single orders (up to a maximum of five, as per Exchange rule 1500).

MEMBER FIRM DETAILS

Full Name of Member Firm:	Member Mnemonic(s):
Member ID(s):

Please detail below the names of any persons who should be deleted or added to the Exchange's list of persons authorised to delete orders.

If you require confirmation of who is currently authorised, please contact Market Supervision via email on msu@lseg.com

Please enter below the details of any employees of the member firm who should be ADDED to the Authorised Persons List held by the Exchange.

Contact Name	Position	Telephone/STX

Please use a continuation sheet if required.

Please enter below the details of any employees of the member firm who should be DELETED from the Authorised Persons List held by the Exchange.

Contact Name	Position	Telephone/STX

Please use a continuation sheet if required.

COMPLIANCE AUTHORISATION

The below authorisation is to be completed by the compliance department of the member firm. Please tick box as appropriate:

I confirm the individuals above are authorised to request order deletions on behalf of the member firm.

I confirm that there are changes as typed on the continuation sheet (if appropriate).

Contact Name:	Position	Telephone/STX
Signature:		Date:
Email address for confirmation:

Completed forms should be returned to:

Market Supervision, London Stock Exchange, 10 Paternoster Square, London, EC4M 7LS
 Email: msu@lseg.com

If the Exchange accepts a request to delete orders it will endeavour to do so promptly. The Exchange is not liable for any losses incurred by a member firm (caused by negligence of the Exchange or otherwise) as a result of the Exchange either deleting, or failing to delete or delaying the deletion of orders displayed on the order book.