

Turquoise Equities

The purpose of this announcement is to inform members of upcoming closure dates for the Turquoise Equities Customer Development Service (CDS) environment on Wednesday 25 September 2013 and Monday 30 September 2013. These service closures are necessary due to upgrade activities taking place on the CDS environment.

Following the upgrade, the Turquoise Equities CDS environment will be in a maintenance day on Tuesday 01 October 2013. The services will be available as normal, however customers should be aware that the potential exists for the service to become unavailable at any time. All services will be operating normally on Wednesday 02 October 2013.

The table below outlines the various service disruption dates.

Turquoise would like to apologise for any inconvenience caused.
