Turquoise Brexit Contingency Dress Rehearsal Reminder

Further to the Turquoise Notice published on 13 December 2018, Turquoise would like to remind members of the Turquoise Brexit Contingency customer dress rehearsal dates.

Customer dress rehearsals will be held on the dates below. Members will be able to test using their Turquoise Europe and Turquoise UK Production trading credentials. Attendance in at least one customer dress rehearsal is mandatory. Please ensure that participation requests are made by 16:00 UK time of the Thursday prior to one of the following rehearsal dates:

1. 16 February 2019
2. 02 March 2019
3. 16 March 2019

To participate in the customer dress rehearsal, members should ensure they perform the following:

1. Complete and submit Turquoise Europe membership applications.
2. Request technical configuration in the Turquoise Customer Development Service (CDS) from the Technical Account Management team. This can be done in conjunction with membership application.
3. Perform certification testing on any directly connected software. If there have been no changes to the software to support the Brexit release, firms can perform a self-certification and provide sign-off of successful testing to the Market Access team.
4. Request Turquoise Europe production technical configuration via Member Portal.
5. Contact your CCP or GCM to arrange CDS and production clearing set up.

The dress rehearsal guide will be available early February, members will be notified via a Turquoise Notice once available.

Turquoise Europe is expected to be operationally live on 1 April 2019, subject to regulatory approval. Turquoise continues to monitor wider developments carefully and may choose to revise its plans accordingly. Turquoise will confirm in advance any launch of Turquoise Europe.
