Update on Turquoise Brexit Contingency Planning

Following last night's decision to extend the period provided for in Article 50 of the Treaty on the European Union (TEU), the timeline for the exit of the UK from the EU has been extended to 31 October 2019, with an earlier exit possible in the event the Withdrawal Agreement is ratified by the UK Parliament prior to this date.

As previously stated, Turquoise will not invoke its Brexit contingency plans unless there is a 'Hard Brexit', i.e. if the UK was to leave the EU without a transition agreement and/or without relevant equivalence decisions in place to allow cross-border services between the EU and UK to continue. Accordingly, Turquoise will not execute on its Brexit contingency plans at this time.

We continue to monitor developments and will further update the market on our planning in due course.
