Update on Turquoise Brexit Contingency Planning

Further to previous market notices outlining details of Turquoise's Brexit contingency planning, we would like to update the market.

Following the European Council's decision of 21 March to agree to the United Kingdom's (UK) request for an extension to the period provided for in Article 50 of the Treaty on the European Union (TEU), the timeline for the exit of the United Kingdom from the European Union is uncertain, but could be delayed to 12 April 2019 or later.

Accordingly, implementation of Turquoise's Brexit contingency plan will be delayed until further clarity on the Brexit timetable emerges. We continue to monitor developments and will update the market on our Brexit contingency planning in due course.
