Welcome to the vibrant heart of London events and studio spaces.

Where you can explore our prestigious offerings; hold memorable events and create your content.

Where centuries-old heritage meets cutting edge technology and world class facilities.

With two decades of experience, we offer the ideal multimedia studio experience. Create or showcase unforgettable content with our top-of-the-line multimedia studio facilities, live streaming, and cutting-edge technology.

The iconic London skyline in the distance, the historic St Paul's cathedral alongside you and overlooking Paternoster Square, but that's not all.

Theatre & Theatre Gallery

Ideal for presentations, seminars or live global webcasts, our modern Theatre space comfortably seats 123 guests in tiered, armchair seating.

Our largest meeting room measures 180m<sup>2</sup> and features a raised stage for presentations or panel formats, framed by a 9m x 2m video wall that is perfect for your dynamic presentations and films. Choose from our range of broadcast-standard lighting, AV capabilities and high-speed connectivity for live streaming and video conferencing, letting you deliver a quality event every time.

Next to the Theatre is the Theatre Gallery, adjacent to LSEG's Studios, where you can host guest registrations, all-standing catering to meet your specific tastes, networking events and exhibitions.

Forum, Forum Gallery & Atrium

When a flexible event space matters, explore the varied options that the Forum offers, from a boardroom meeting for 30 to an elegant, seated dinner for 80 guests. Choose the set-up that meets your needs, including theatre, cabaret or classroom styles, U-shape or circular seating, and various dining options in this 137m<sup>2</sup> space.

Our dedicated in-house AV technician will assist during your event, helping you maximise your experience.

Directly outside the Forum you will find the Forum Gallery where your guests will enjoy all-standing catering plus refreshments and networking in the impressive four-storey glass Atrium that streams natural light into this dynamic space.

Avenues 1-3

Explore the three interconnected Avenues rooms that can be used separately or as open-plan 110m<sup>2</sup> space, depending on your specific event needs. Ideally situated in a discrete part of the events floor, Avenues is a popular choice for board meetings that can accommodate 16-36 attendees. Deliver your presentations on the large screen and rely on our in-house dedicated AV technician who can assist during your events.

You can also configure Avenues to meet your individual requirements, including theatre, cabaret or classroom styles, and U-shape or circular seating.

We offer dedicated catering inside your chosen room, including the option to convene your meeting in two rooms and enjoy your catering in the third room.

Studios

Explore our live streaming and production facility in the heart of the City of London. Our dedicated production team will work closely with you to understand your technical and creative requirements, delivering an exemplary experience in our flexible suite of studios.

Studio 1 features a brand-new wrap-around video wall, modular set, four HD cameras and full seamless connectivity for live streaming and production.

Studio 2 is a newly refurbished studio set with an integrated plasma screen and LED lighting that can be adjusted to your corporate colours. This studio is most suitable for pre-recorded 1:1 interviews.

Studio 3 has a backdrop overlooking Paternoster Square and is our dedicated broadcast studio for down-the-line interviews. The studio is also ideal for pieces to camera or down-the-barrel interviews.

The Green Room is bright, modern and fully equipped with a dedicated make-up area. Clients and guests can use this space to prepare to go live, watch the studio action on the screens or sit back and relax.
